RECORD

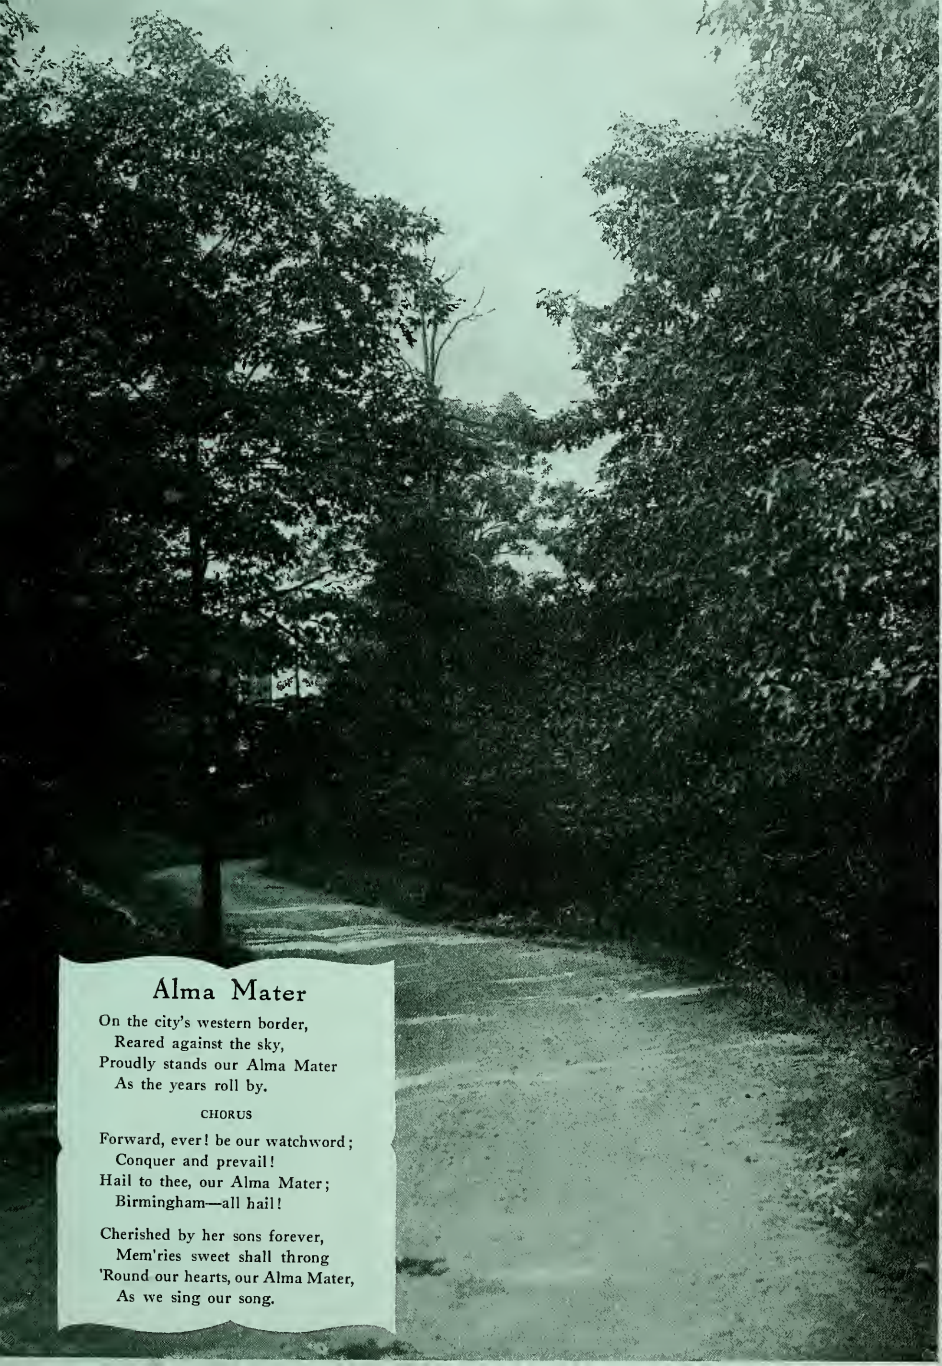

La Revue! How appropriate is the title! It implies so well its purpose, and has guided our endeavors in its composition. Through this child of our imagination we have attempted to let you see Birmingham-Southern College in the drama of action; and to give you a panoramic view of her student life and activities, an epitome of her accomplishments, a perspective of her growth and progress, and a record of her achievements.

It has been our idea that this book reproduce the atmosphere that permeates our Alma Mater, and the spirit that envelops her campus. May these memories survive the ravages of Time and awaken within us, some day, reminiscences of days gone by.

O critic, we have not striven for literary merit in this volume! Our work has been merely the collection of suggestions to reflect the record that you helped to make. But our efforts have been earnest, conscientious, and impartial. Hence, we offer no apologies and grant no redresses. If, perchance, these pages afford you pleasure, or in any way meet with your kind favors, it will be our sincerest delight, and our only compensation.

College

Alma Mater

On the city's western border,
Reared against the sky,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
As the years roll by.

CHORUS

Forward, ever! be our watchword;
Conquer and prevail!
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater;
Birmingham—all hail!

Cherished by her sons forever,
Mem'ries sweet shall throng
'Round our hearts, our Alma Mater,
As we sing our song.

Senior Class History

In September, 1920, there assembled on Sunshine Slopes ninety young men and women, a part of which group has survived as the members of the 1924 Senior Class. President Daniels received this green mob mercifully, assuring each one that his desire for knowledge would be satisfied. To prove their sincerity of interest in college life, the class as a whole entered into their activities with the determination to make Birmingham-Southern the better for having attended it. Half of the football and baseball squads consisted of men from this class, while in tennis and track it was equally well represented. Dan Cupid played the boys foul, inasmuch as there were only ten girls among the Rats, and Leap Year over half gone. However, these young maidens proved themselves very capable in handling the braver sex.

Our Sophomore year began under the able and progressive guidance of our new president, Guy E. Snively. Although somewhat diminished in enrollment, it kept pace in student life and contributed more participants than any other class. Howard was again, as in our Freshman year, defeated in football. However, the year offered further excitement when Birmingham had her fiftieth birthday, and many masculine members of the class escorted some of the county queens to the several social functions.

Here it was 1923, and we were actually Juniors, with hopes of a diploma in the near future. My, but doesn't time fly! By this time we had no less than a half dozen representatives in every form of activity on Sunshine Slopes, and still going strong. Too bad, but couldn't be helped. Howard, 9; Birmingham-Southern, 7.

The Spring of 1924 is here, and Senior dignity is quite noticeable, and especially so when the newly-inaugurated Freshman caps are seen being tipped to the disdainful and well-filled Senior derbies. The largest class in the history of Birmingham-Southern is now finishing its college career with a total enrollment of seventy-three. This number includes some special students and a few Juniors, who are doubling up in their studies.

Our Freshman dreams, Sophomore hopes and Junior prayers are now realized as we stand on the elevated pedestal of Seniordom, ready to step forward into the world of endeavor as college graduates. May we ever carry before us the motto of our Alma Mater, "FOR CHRIST AND THE REPUBLIC."

HISTORIAN.

SENIORS

RUTH ANDREWS, A.B. JACKSON, ALABAMA

Phi Gamma Pi; Southern University; Honorary member Clariosophic and Belles Lettres Literary Societies; George Peabody College; Instructor in Household Arts, Birmingham-Southern.

We are glad to present to you our Household Arts Teacher. Miss Andrews has been a member of our class only one year, but as she once attended Southern University in Greensboro, we feel that she really belongs to us. In the short time she has been here we have learned to admire her for her excellence and the high grade of her work, and to love her for her friendliness and kindness. We wish our "Teacher-Classmate" the best of luck.

MILDRED BAKER, A.B. BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Kappa Lambda; Classical Club, '22-'23; Cercle Francais, '22-'23; Honor Roll, '23; Secretary Clariosophic Literary Society, '23; Central-Southern Club.

The Baker Twins stole a march on the Juniors, and are graduating a year ahead of time. Mildred is the peppy one, always running over with enthusiasm, always happy and merry. Who could be sad when "Little Sip" is around? She has shown a strong liking for History, especially for our past great generals, "Alexander," etc.

MIRIAM BAKER, A.B. BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Kappa Lambda; Classical Club, '22-'23; Cercle Francais, '22-'23; Honor Roll, '23; Honor Book, '23; Clariosophic Literary Society; Vice-President Central-Southern Club, '23; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '23-'24; Secretary Girls' Pan-Hellenic Council, '23-'24.

And here is "Big Sip," the quiet, dignified one. Looking back over the past three years, we find that Miriam's scholastic standing is excellent and that she has manifested a keen interest in College activities. She is not quick to jump to conclusions; she thinks before she acts. So here's to the Baker Twins! When we refer to one we mean they are "Two in One."

WILLIAM OWENS BARROW, A.B. RUTLEDGE, ALABAMA

Kappa Phi Kappa; President Belles Lettres Literary Society, '23-'24; Vice-President, '21; Secretary, '22-'23; Honor Roll, '22-'23; Member Forum; Vice-President Ministerial Association, '22-'23; Assistant Librarian, '22-'24; Track Team, '21-'22; Class Football, '22-'23; B Club.

"Of soul sincere,

In action faithful, and in honor clear."

His classmates are agreed that never has our Alma Mater trained a student possessing a higher sense of honor and justice, a more pleasing personality, and a more perfect endowment of manhood than Barrow. We have known and respected him for four years, and now we bid him Godspeed.

SENIORS

JOSEPH BENJAMIN BEAIRD, B.S. BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Masonic Club, '22-'23; Square and Compass, '23-'24; Vice-President Simpson-Southern Club, '23-'24; Assistant Chemistry Simpson School, '23; Student Senate, '23-'24; President Biological Society, '23-'24; Junior Faculty, '23-'24; Honor Roll.

Ben is a pre-med student whose work is outstanding. His friendliness and manliness have won for him the esteem and admiration of both faculty and students. He possesses that which so many students lack—Ambition. "Faithful, loyal, firm and true" is not enough to be said of Ben. We are expecting great things of him in the future as a man in the medical profession. "Bye, Ben, and good luck!"

SAM GOODE BERRY, A.B. CAMDEN, ALABAMA

Phi Alpha; Band, '23-'24; Glee Club, '23-'24.

Here's a man whom we know by his good nature. His high moral standards and lofty ideals have won for him the respect of all who know him. He loves to hear the rippling sound of music, especially of the Rely instrument variety. However, his work in the band and Glee Club indicate that he is interested in other kinds of music as well. We are confident that success awaits him, whatever he may do.

JOE CECIL CAMERON, B.S. LUVERNE, ALABAMA

Belles Lettres Literary Society; Football Scrubs, '21-'22; First Honor Roll, '22-'23; Honor Book, '23; Class Football, '22.

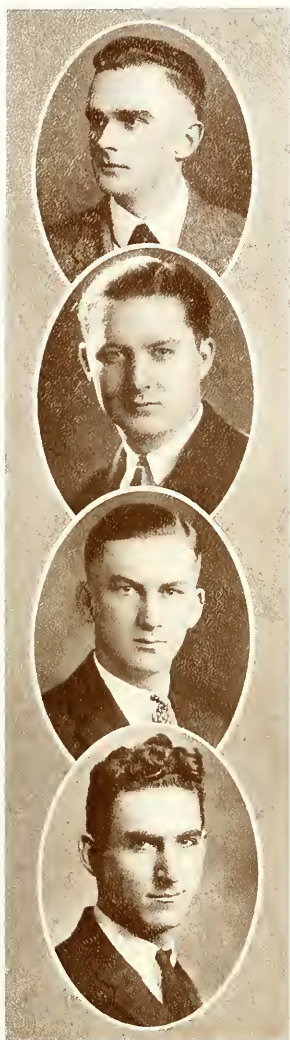

"Skinny" may sleep in church, but he will never sleep in a chemical laboratory. He says if heaven is one big laboratory he will find happiness there. We feel that the scientific world will observe with eager interest when he advances his theories in disintegrating the atom, and building up synthetic radium, though his one philanthropic ambition must be to perfect a sure cure for insomnia. We know, "Skinny," that you will keep up the fine work you have done all through your college course.

JAMES ALLEN CLARK, A.B. BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Cheer Leader, '20-'21; Track Captain, '20-'21; Masonic Club, '20-'24; Panther Club, '22; Square and Compass.

"I am a student, and women are the enemies of studies."

James Allen came to Sunshine Slopes before "Nigger, Nigger, hoe potato!" was dethroned for "B. S. Ra! Ra!" During his stay here he has been in the limelight for more reasons than one: two of these reasons we would like to mention—his efforts as a cheer leader, and his track ability. Good luck to you, Clark.

SENIORS

JAMES M. CLARK, JR., A.B. ALBANY, ALABAMA

Clariosophic Literary Society; Y. M. C. A. Vice-President, '23-'24; Cabinet, '22-'23; Delegate to Blue Ridge, '21; Cabinet Ministerial Association, '23-'24; Junior Oratorical Contest, '22-'23; Simpson-Southern Club.

"Thought is deeper than all speech."

Dignity personified, Clark this year won the title of "most dignified Senior." When he speaks, others listen. He will be especially missed by the Ministerial Association and the Y. M. C. A., as he has been unusually active in these organizations while here.

EDNA ELIZABETH COLVIN, A.B. BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Tau Delta; Clariosophic Literary Society Secretary, '21-'23; Vice-President, '24; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '22-'23; Delegate to Indianapolis, '24; Secretary Sophomore Class, '22; Secretary Junior Class, '23; Corresponding Secretary Senior Class, '24; Secretary Pre-Med Club, '22-'23; Student Volunteer Band; Revue Elections, '23; Treasurer Cercle Francals, '23; President Girls' Glee Club, '23; College Pianist, '21-'22-'23-'24; Director and Accompanist College Orchestra, '23-'24.

"Music washes away from the soul
The dust of every-day life."

For four years Elizabeth has done more than her share in boosting Birmingham-Southern. She believes in her College, and has never failed to respond to any call for service. Her place will be hard to fill in musical spheres, as well as in all other phases of student life.

MARJORIE BRITTAIN CRAIG, A.B. BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Zeta Tau Alpha; Secretary Freshman Class, '21; Vice-President Junior Class, '23; Vice-President Cercle Francals, '21-'22; Dramatic Club, '21-'24; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '21-'22; First Honor Roll, '21-'22; Gold and Black Staff, '21-'23; Revue Staff, '22-'23; Revue Elections, '22-'24; Girls' Pan-Hellenic Council, '22-'23-'24; Honor Book, '23.

"A little, tiny, pretty, witty, charming darling she."

The poet must have been thinking of "Bitsy" when he wrote "To know her is to love her." For four years "Bitsy" has been the Sunshine of Sunshine Slopes. The hill won't be the same without her, but, needless to say, she will prove herself capable of big things.

RAYMOND RIGGAN CROWE, B.S. GREENWOOD SPRINGS, MISSISSIPPI

Biology Club, '23-'24; Belles Lettres Literary Society; Pre-Med Club, '21-'24; Junior Faculty, '23-'24.

"Doctors may come and doctors may go,
But there'll never be one like Raymond Crowe."

He is one of the most affable and pleasant men on the campus. Wherever you meet him you get a broad smile and a cheery greeting that is calculated to rescue even the most discouraged from the "Slough of Despond."

SENIORS

CHAPMAN CURRY, A.B.

MCWILLIAMS, ALABAMA

Vice-President Clarosophic Literary Society, '21-'23; Ladies' Debate, '22; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, '23-'24; President Ministerial Association, '23-'24; Delegate Y. M. C. A. Conference Blue Ridge, '23; Modern Problems Club, '22-'23; Political Club, '23-'24.

Since "Chap" came to Southern, he has proved his sterling worth in many ways. He has been "Bishop" of the young preachers on the hill this year, and has also led the vesper services. One would never take him for a ladies' man, but we have heard him boast to his friends that he has the "best girl!" Chap's friendly smile and genial nature will be missed as he leaves us.

DWIGHT JAMES DARK, B.S.

ALEXANDER CITY, ALABAMA

Clarosophic Literary Society; Track, '22-'23; First Honor Roll, '22-'23; Second Place Cooper Road Race, '22; "B" Club; Class Football, '22-'23; Third Place Cross Country Track Meet, '22.

"Little Dark" has not been with us this year, having completed his required work during the summer of last year, but he will receive his diploma with the class in June. While here he excelled in scholarship, and was one of our star track men, winning several medals through his ability in that activity.

BENJAMIN ELLISON DISMUKES, A.B.

UNION SPRINGS, ALABAMA

Phi Delta Sigma; Kappa Phi Kappa; Clarosophic Literary Society; Assistant Editor Gold and Black, '23-'24; Glee Club, '24; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, '24; Modern Problems Club, '22-'23; Treasurer Cercle francals, '24.

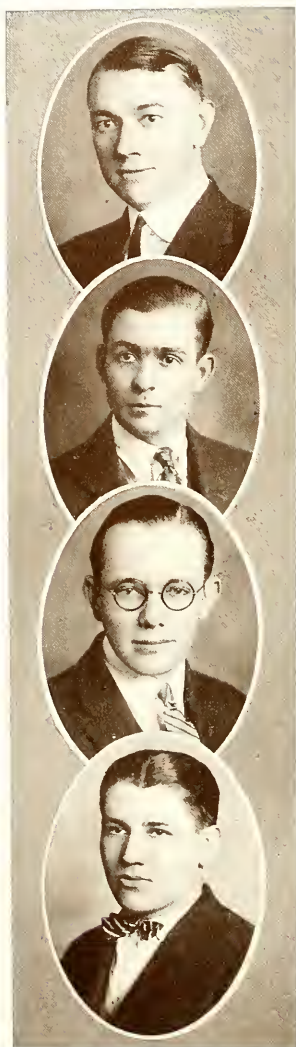

From a "green" Freshman to a Senior of the Seniors, Ben's progress has been quite remarkable. His kindly disposition and sense of humor have won him many friends among the student body. The variety of his honors would testify to his versatility. "Au Revoir," Ben. Here's to you!

OSCAR BYRON ELLIS, B.S.

CLEVELAND, ALABAMA

Kappa Psi, Emory; President Y. M. C. A., '23; Student Senate-Elect, '23; Delegate to Blue Ridge Conference, '23; Revue Elections, '21-'23; Clarosophic Literary Society; Pre-Med Club, '21-'22; Biological Club, '22-'24; Football, '21-'22; "B" Club.

This old world would be a chilly place if men of "O. B.'s" type were not living. His grace and charm, blended with his good nature and sportsmanship, make him one sought for in all good society. As a student he is a success and a prominent figure in all college activities. For good fatherly advice all Freshmen go to "O. B.", always returning in a pensive mood, chagrined that they couldn't answer the simple question: "Where were shingles first used."

SENIORS

THADDEUS HARMON FERRELL, A.B. BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Phi Alpha, University Alabama, '21-'22; University Texas, '20-'21; Soloist and Varsity Quartette, Glee Club, '22-'23-'24; Gold and Black Business Staff, '22-'23; Business Staff "Y" Handbook, '23; Belles Lettres Literary Society; Junior Faculty.

We boast that we have in Thad the best first tenor anywhere near. But imitating the songbirds doesn't by any means mark the limit of Thad's capabilities. By glancing over his honors you will see that he is quite a business man. He has a rare and highly desirable combination of artistic and practical gifts.

PORTER FRAZIER FLORENCE, JR., A.B. BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Belles Lettres Literary Society Critic, '22; President, '23; Chaplain, '23-'24; Senior Class Treasurer, '24; Assistant Cheer Leader, '22-'23; Cheer Leader, '23-'24; Loyal Students' Club, '20-'21; Simpson-Southern Club; Modern Problems Club; Pre-Med Club, '21-'22; Dramatic Club, '21-'22; "B" Club; Track, '20-'23; Manager, '21-'22; Champion, '23; Scrub Football, '20-'21; Class Football, '22-'24; Varsity and Scrap-Iron Quartettes, Glee Club, '22-'23; Revue Elections, '24; Student Senate, '24.

Porter has been a highlight on our campus for four years, responsibility and honors having been thrust upon him. By the havoc he has wrought among the weaker sex, the title of "Love Pirate" would not be unsuitable, though he disclaims any interest in the conquests. When Porter leaves, Sunshine Slopes will be a little less sunny; so here's to the "most popular boy" at Birmingham-Southern.

ORMAN STANTON GANDY, B. S.

ENSLEY, ALABAMA

Alpha Tau Omega; Belles Lettres Literary Society; President Freshman Class, '20-'21; Masonic Club; Varsity Football, '20-'23; Captain Football, '23; Track; Basketball; Vice-President Senior Class, '23-'24; Revue Elections, '24; "B" Club.

Here's our football star! As captain of the team this year he has done himself proud. Birmingham-Southerners will never forget the day of the Howard game, when "Hoos" went into the fight with his side in a plaster cast, and so kept up the Panther's morale. Nor will they forget the stellar work Sunshine Slopes' All-Southern End has done for the past four seasons. He well deserved his election as the "most popular athlete."

EARL LANIER GLENN, B.S.

ALBANY, ALABAMA

Belles Lettres Literary Society; Honor Roll, '20; Treasurer Pre-Med Club, '20; Vice-President Biological Club, '22-'23; Class Football, '22; Junior Faculty, '22-'23.

"The true ambition there alone resides
Where justice vindicates and wisdom guides."

Glenn is another of those who finished his work in the summer term. During his last year here he served as Chemistry Laboratory Instructor. Everyone who knew him had the highest regard for his integrity of character, his excellence in scholarship, and his friendliness toward all.

SENIORS

GORDON LEWIS GOLSON, A.B.

GREENVILLE, TEXAS

Honorary Member Bulger Club, '22; Revue Elections, '23.

"Who gained no title, and who lost no friend."

"Boxy" is a jolly, rollicking friend to all. He keeps things in a hum wherever he goes, and is the life of every crowd. He, too, completed his Senior course in the summer, but we're glad he is to be here Commencement and receive his degree along with the rest of us.

ANNE GREENE, A.B.

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Tau Delta; Woman's College, '20-'21; Secretary Belles Lettres Literary Society, '21-'22; Treasurer Cercle Français, '22-'23; Secretary, '23-'24; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '21-'24; Gold and Black Staff, '21-'22; Associate Editor "Y" Handbook, '22; Accompanist Glee Club, '21-'22; Girls' Pan-Hellenic Council, '22-'24; First Honor Roll, '22-'23; La Revue Elections, '23; La Revue Staff, '24; Secretary and Pianist Class, '24.

Oh, what a pal is Anne! She is one of the most likeable, most attractive, and most talented girls on the campus. In her own unobtrusive way she has gone about serenely and diligently, and has merited the distinction of the most versatile—and yea! the most popular girl at Birmingham-Southern. In class she is a real student, and in music she excels. As Senior Class Editor, Anne has had a tremendous job. But tasks to her seem mere pleasures.

JEWELL C. HALL, A.B.

TALLADEGA, ALABAMA

Lincoln Memorial University, '20-'21; Band, '22-'24; Glee Club, '22-'24; Manager Band, '22-'23; Saxophone Sextette, '22-'23; Gold and Black Staff, '22; Business Manager Gold and Black, '23-'24; Student Handbook, '22; Class Baseball, '22; College Orchestra, '23-'24; Contemporary Club; Simpson-Southern Club.

"A man without a sweetheart is like a fish without water."

Here is a combination of wit, fun, and humor. As a musician he performs equally well on the clarinet and saxophone—jazz music or otherwise. He is particularly gifted in arguing with the professor about Psychology, or something, so that the class won't get to the lesson.

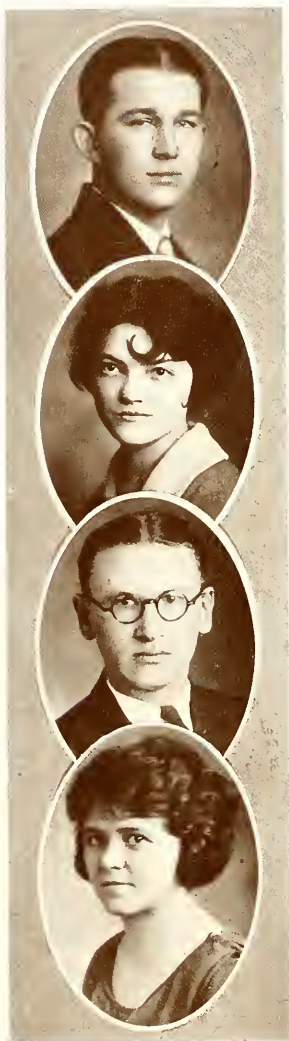

ALLIE BESS HARPER, A.B.

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Clariosophic Literary Society; Classical Club; Second Honor Roll, '21-'22; First Honor Roll, '22-'23.

"On one she smiled and he was blest."

Allie Bess is quiet and modest, always calm and optimistic, with a sunny disposition that can be ruffled only by Chemistry Lab. By her hard study and perseverance, her dignity and high ideals, she has made a good record during her college career. Teachers and students alike know she can be depended on. While most are content to get one degree, Allie Bess is aspiring to two or three. So here's to the girl that can cook and mend, who to other varied interests is well able to attend.

SENIORS

HELEN GRAY HASTY, A.B. BESSEMER, ALABAMA

Tau Delta; Winthrop College, '21-'22; Honor Roll, '22; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '22-'24; Clarionophic Literary Society; Vice-President, '23; Senior Class Poet, '24; Vice-President Bessemer-Southern Club, '23-'24.

Here's a girl who is never too busy to stop and say a friendly word to anyone. Democratic of spirit, with "pep" enough for any occasion, she is the kind of person who is sincere in demand. Helen is straight-forward, sincere, and lovable.

JOHN HARPER HAWKINS, A.B. BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Kappa Alpha; Kappa Phi Kappa; Emory University, '17-'18; Belles Lettres Literary Society; First Honor Roll, '21-'22; Vice-President Greeks, '22-'23; President Junior Class, '22-'23; President Bessemer-Southern Club, '22-'23; President Senior Class, '23-'24; Vice-President Pan-Hellenic Council, '23-'24; Student Senate, '22-'24; Gold and Black Staff, '22-'23; Class Football, '22-'24; Contemporary Club; Vice-President Modern Problems Club, '23.

"Noble thoughts and a kind heart are more to be desired than gold."

John's honors speak for themselves. Being elected "most modest student" and runner-up for "most dignified" is a happy combination for our Senior Class president. He has been an able leader, and as he goes he carries with him our best wishes.

ROBERT FULMER HILL, B.S. WINFIELD, ALABAMA

Belles Lettres Literary Society; Simpson-Southern Club; Honor Roll, '22; Class Baseball, '23; Vice-President Political Club, '23-'24; Gold and Black Staff, '23-'24; Biology Club, '23-'24.

"The ladies—heaven bless them!
For I never will."

Hill is a man who has done uniformly good class work during his entire stay at Birmingham-Southern. Especially does he shine in Math, for which our hats are off to him. Much about baseball he knows, and football, too; then with wit and humor in abundance, held intact with a versatile "line," he has all the requirements of a good sports writer. "Father Time" Hill is our hill's only namesake; a good scout and a fine fellow.

JOHN FRANKLIN HODGES, B.S. CURLEY, ALABAMA

Clarionophic Literary Society; President of Resident Student Council Government, '22-'23; Chairman of Dining Hall Committee, '22-'23; President of Student Body, Summer Session, '23; "B" Club; Football, '20-'21-'22.

"Woman is Man's Bread of Life,
I'm getting hungry."

"Big Un" has been a well-known and well-liked character at B. S. C., always ready to "Orate" on any subject up for discussion in student body meetings. He is a man with brains and a man of brawn, with equal ability to use both. As one of Southern's famous guards for three years, he is an athlete of no little renown. Love affairs! He had none 'til '23, but now—?

SENIORS

MARY ELIZABETH HOWARD, A.B. HUNTERSVILLE, ALABAMA

Cercle Français, '21-'24; Secretary and Treasurer Biological Society, '22-'23; Biological Society, '23-'24; Woman's College, '20-'21; Modern Problems Club, '23.

"A noble man is led by woman's gentle words."

Mary is one whose brightness and optimism will be missed when she leaves. She has been a good worker in many of the organizations of school, always putting her best into everything she undertakes. She has won respect and recognition by her excellent class work. We bid her God-speed and know she will come up to our expectations.

EUGENE MILTON HOWELL, A.B. MARION, ALABAMA

Pi Kappa Alpha; Football Scrubs, '21-'22; Class Football, '22.

"Neat, but not finical,
Sage, but not cynical."

This is a lad whose "quick mind is richer than a crown." He is calm and unruffled as a summer sea. His classmates know him for a true gentleman—courteous and kind—one who is willing to share in responsibility. We wish for him the greatest success.

RAYMOND DONALD HURLBERT, B.S. ENSLEY, ALABAMA

Alpha Tau Omega; Pyramid Club; Belles Lettres Literary Society; Assistant Manager Gold and Black, '20-'21; Class Football, '22; President Ensley-Southern Club, '22-'23; Senior Class Historian, '24; Modern Problems Club, '23; Business Manager La Revue, '24.

"Great modesty often hides great merit."

Originality, wit, friendliness, and the spirit and will to accomplish have won our whole-hearted admiration and respect for this lusty man of the ladies—not ladies' man. However, Raymond does tame 'em. We don't know whether it is by force of intellect, good looks, or a cave man style. Still he does it.

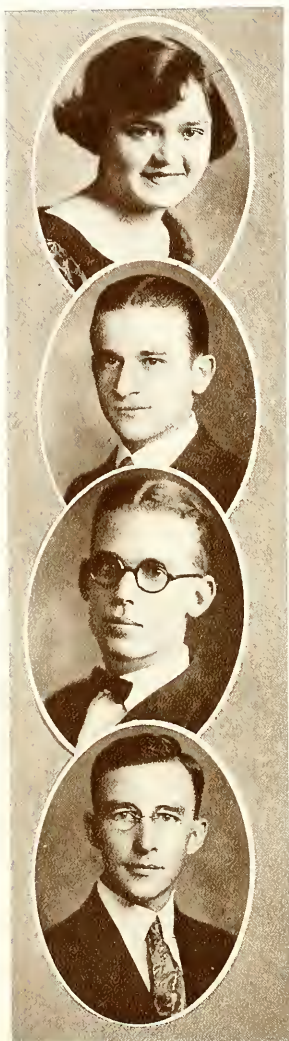

As he goes, he carries with him our best wishes for the success that is certain to be his.

PERRY BENJAMIN JAMES, JR., A.B. TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA

Vice-President Clarissophic Literary Society, '22; Masonic Club; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, '20-'21; President, '22-'23; Secretary Masonic Club, '21-'22; Sophomore Oratorical Contest, '22; Vice-President Ministerial Association, '21-'22; Y. M. C. A. Delegate to Blue Ridge, '21; Delegate to Montgomery, '22; Junior Oratorical Contest, '23.

"I would be pure, for there are those who care."

Perry is one of our number who has already begun making good. He has been teaching school in Missouri this year, having completed his course here last summer. He is the kind of man who does his best on any job. "Professor James" has our best wishes.

SENIORS

OTIS EDGAR KIRBY, A.B.

ALBERTVILLE, ALABAMA

Phi Alpha; Pyramid Club; University of Alabama, '21-'22; Masonic Club; President Sophomore Class, '22-'23; Clariosophic Literary Society; Pan-Hellenic Council, '23-'24; Sophomore Declamation Medal, '23; Record on 100, 220 and 440-yard dashes; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, '23; Delegate to Indianapolis, '24 Ministerial Association, '23-'24; Coach Birmingham-Southern Track, '23-'24.

"This is a man."

Otis first won fame at Birmingham-Southern by his excellent ability in coaching Track. Since then he has directed a choir and has done assistant pastoral work, besides having entered into nearly all student activities. He is universally liked.

TAYLOR HERMAN KIRBY, A.B.

ALBERTVILLE, ALABAMA

Phi Alpha; Kappa Phi Kappa; University of Alabama, '21-'22; Clariosophic Literary Society; Education Club; Statistician Senior Class, '24; Secretary Ministerial Association, '23; President Y. M. C. A., '23-'24; Delegate to Indianapolis, '24.

Taylor sampled several schools before he realized that Birmingham-Southern is the best. During the two years he has been with us we have come to know him as a man always ready for clean fun and a good time, but one who is never afraid to buckle down to a hard job. He has been active in Epworth League and Y. M. C. A. work, and has also made good in his class work. He seemingly is invulnerable to all co-ed efforts, but we have heard that Woman's College is the fatal "arrow in the heel."

SARA ROE LATHAM, A. B.

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Kappa Lambda; President Classical Club, '22-'23; President Y. W. C. A., '23-'24; Honor Roll, '21-'23; Vice-President Clariosophic Literary Society, '22-'23; Girls' Pan-Hellenic Council, '22-'23; Delegate Montreat, '23; Delegate Indianapolis, '24.

"Woman is most perfect when most womanly."

Here we have a girl who has been especially outstanding during her Senior year as Y. W. C. A. president. Her position indicates the trust and confidence imposed in her, and the esteem in which she is held. Her class work has been of a high order, and we feel sure that after she leaves she will keep up the record that she has begun.

HOYT BENTON LEVIE, A.B.

SYLACAUGA, ALABAMA

Alpha Tau Omega; Clariosophic Literary Society; Football, '21-'23; Basketball, '21-'22; Track, '21-'22; "B" Club; Senior Class Lawyer, '24; Chairman of Council of New Dormitory, '23.

"He who ceases to love is dead already,
So, take my advice and love forever."

Another football man! The Class of '24 is taking off about half the team, not the least of whom is Levie. Many a time we have delighted in watching him tackle Bulldogs and such animals, and somehow, we always feel safe when he gets the ball.

SENIORS

JULIUS EARL LINN, B.S.

ARAB, ALABAMA

Pre-Med Club, '21-'22; Class Football, '22; Biological Society, '22-'23; Scrub Football, '23.

"I dare do all that becomes a man."

During Linn's college career he has shown himself to be the possessor of a strong determination and the will to put things through. He is a hard working Pre-Med student, who has done a great deal of outside work in addition to his school activities.

EARL MCBEE, A. B.

ENSLEY, ALABAMA

Kappa Phi Kappa; Winner "Popular Science Monthly" Scholarship Contest; University of Virginia, '20; Track Team, '21-'23; Manager Track, '22; President Cercle Français, '21-'22; President Belles Lettres Literary Society, '22; Honor Roll, '22; Education Club, '23; Class Football, '22; Instructor of English, Simpson School, '23-'24; Student Senate, '22-'23; La Revue Business Staff, '24.

"Brave, not romantic,
Learned, not pedantic."

McBee is a man of personality. Birmingham-Southern does not boast a better student than he—a student in the real sense of the word. At the same time, he is athletic enough to keep from being too intellectual, having done his share along that line. In short, he is a man who will lead his fellows.

MARGARET MCCALL, A.B.

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Zeta Tau Alpha; Woman's College, '19-'20-'21; President Pan-Hellenic Council, '23-'24.

"Of her bright face, one glance will trace
A picture on the brain."

Margaret has just enough dignity, just enough sweetness, just enough seriousness, and just enough fun to make up the kind of girl we all like. She came to us as a Junior from Woman's College. She has made a splendid record, both there and here.

ELGIN WENDELL MELLOWN, B.S.

YORK, ALABAMA

Phi Delta Sigma; Clarisophic Literary Society; Honor Roll, '22-'23; Track Team, '22-'23; Cooper Medal, '22; Pre-Med Club, '22; "B" Club; Secretary Student Senate, '23; Gold and Black Staff, '24; Modern Problems Club, '23; Secretary Y. M. C. A., '23; Delegate Blue Ridge, '22; La Revue Staff, '24; Contemporary Club, '24; Assistant Librarian, '24; Biological Club, '24; Editor "Y" Handbook, '23.

"It is our actual work which determines our values."

Elgin is a man who does what he proposes to do, whether in love, business, or college activities. Since coming to the Hill, three years ago, he has lived a rather quiet life; but his schoolmates have come to admire his efficiency, and his straight-to-the-point way of getting what he goes after.

SENIORS

AUBREY ALFRED MILLER, A.B.

VERNON, FLORIDA

Pi Kappa Alpha; Belles Lettres Literary Society; Bulger Club; Porter Athletic Cups, '19-'21; Robertson Athletic Medals, '19-'21; Singles Tennis Champion Cup, '22-'23; Football, '19-'23; Captain Football, '22; Basketball, '18-'20; Captain Basketball, '18-'19; Baseball, '19-'22; Senior Class Orator, '24; "E" Club.

Aubrey is a true example of a man's man, always ready to lend a fellow a helping hand. He has faced the Howard Building four times, and each time was ready for the scrap. Aubrey is almost a "tradition" at Birmingham-Southern—he has been the hero of the Hill for so long. Some would say that he is "first in love, first in football, and first in the hearts of his fellow-students."

EMILY VENICE NESBITT, A.B.

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Kappa Lambda; Maryville College, '20-'21; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '22-'23; Clarosophic Literary Society; First Honor Roll, '23; Modern Problems Club, '23.

"Mirthful Emily is certain to win Hosts of friends with her good-natured grin."

Emily is the type of girl we call on when we want a thing done just right. She is always glad to help out. She has charm, womanliness, and poise—the brains to plan anything, and the energy to carry it out. She has made a good scholastic showing, and we are expecting her to succeed.

SARA NEWSOM, M.A.

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Phi Beta Kappa, University of Alabama; Bachelor of Arts, University of Alabama, '23; Instructor in History, Birmingham-Southern, '23-'24.

As a scholar, Sara is among the best we have to offer. The whole class is proud of the Phi Beta Kappa key which she won at University of Alabama last year. However, she has plenty of human attributes to go along with all that intellect. She is of a sympathetic nature, and is generous with her friendship. We know she will achieve great things.

WILLIAM HERSCHEL NOLEN, B.S.

ALEXANDER CITY, ALABAMA

Kappa Alpha; Kappa Psi, Emory; Clarosophic Literary Society; Revue Staff, '23; Class Football, '22; Class Baseball, '23; Track, '22-'23.

"There are worse occupations in this world than feeling a woman's pulse."

Nolen finished his work at Birmingham-Southern last summer, and has been in medical school at Emory this year. He is a man who likes the ladies and who is liked by the ladies; consequently, he has been greatly missed this year. He is a lover of fun and good times, and his friends wish him much of both along with the success that must be his.

SENIORS

PAUL MADDOX NORTON, A.B.
BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Pi Kappa Alpha; Football, '19-'22; Baseball, '20-'22; Basketball, '20-'21; "B" Club.

Here's to "Mike," our all-round athlete, and the best sport ever! The inhabitants of Sunshine Slopes will feel not a little sadness when he leaves. He is the last of the Nortons at B. S. C.—a clan of boosters for their college. "Mike," wherever you go, you have the strong support of every loyal Birmingham-Southerner.

LOUISE FEMINEAR OBENCHAIN, A.B.
BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Troy Normal, '12-'14; Peabody College, Summers, '15-'17; Auburn Summer School, '22-'23.

The Class of '24 is glad to enroll Mrs. Obenchain as one of its members. Although she came to us in our last year, she brought with her an enviable record. As a kindergarten director she is an expert, having done work of that kind in Baldwin County, Montgomery County, and New York City. Mrs. Obenchain claims to be a collector of degrees. She has already gained the Mrs. and Ma degrees, and now will receive the A.B. from Birmingham-Southern.

ELIJAH BERRY OGBURN, A.B.
BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Ministerial Association; Honor Roll.

"I would be humble, for I know my weakness; I would look up, and laugh, and love, and lift."

Hooker was thinking of such a man when he said, "The life of a pious minister is visible rhetoric." To know him is to admire him for his gentleness and great optimism. He is a man of determination, who, finding obstacles in his path, has used them for stepping stones. His Alma Mater is proud of such a son. She expects much of him, and knows he will not fail her.

MARJORIE ELIZABETH ORMOND, A.B.
BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Tau Delta; Basketball, '21-'23; Manager, '22-'23; Cercle Francais, '21-'24; Secretary, '22-'23; President, '23-'24; Secretary Sophomore Class, '22-'23; Honor Roll, '21-'23.

"Margie, Margie, who is she,
That all the swains adore her?"

There is no question more appropriate for "Margie." Answer: She is lovely because she is different, meaning that we lack words to describe her. She is attractive and charming; but she is quiet while others are vivacious. She is appealing, but not too much so. She's a good sport and a real pal, loved alike by girls and boys. Here's to "Margie!"

SENIORS

LAFAYETTE L. PATTERSON, A.B. DAVISTON, ALABAMA

Jacksonville State Normal School; President
Clariosophic Literary Society, '23-'24; President
Political Club, '23-'24.

"—With wisdom fraught,
Not such as books, but such as practice taught,"

Mr. Patterson has been a member of our class just one year, but he has taken such an active interest in the work of the class and of the College, that we are unanimously agreed that he is as loyal a son of our Alma Mater as any man could be. He has won the whole-hearted respect and admiration of students and faculty.

LEVERNE PRESTON, A.B. BESSEMER, ALABAMA

Clariosophic Literary Society; First Honor Roll, '23; Cercle Francais, '23-'24; Classical Club, '23; Bessemer-Southern Club.

Leverne is a three-year girl. Her grades speak for themselves, showing an excellent record in scholarship. She has also made herself felt in various student organizations, such as Y. W. C. A. and French Club. All who know her can testify to her friendliness and her sweet, sunny disposition. Class '24 wishes for her the greatest success.

JOHN M. PRICE, A.B. VALLEY HEAD, ALABAMA

Clariosophic Literary Society; Track, '23-'24; Berea College, '19-'22; Jacksonville Normal, '22.

"No man is happy who does not think himself so."

John came to us this year from another school. We know him by his genial nature and his fair and rosy complexion; also by his "plain-spokenness" and frankness, tempered by kindness. We shall watch his progress with interest.

EULA PRITCHETT, A.B. ENSLEY, ALABAMA

Phi Gamma Pi; Clariosophic Literary Society; Cercle Francais, '23-'24; Simpson-Southern Club; Classical Club, '22-'23; Honor Roll, '23.

"Sweet are the thoughts that savor of content."

Eula is sympathetic and even-tempered, quiet and with a mind and a will to work. As she goes from our halls she leaves a record of which she may well be proud. She will be a useful person in whatever sphere of life she enters, and will always have the hearty backing of the Class of '24.

SENIORS

CULL REVEL, A.B.

LUVERNE, ALABAMA

Belles Lettres Literary Society; Class Football, '22; Student Senate '23-'24; La Revue Art Staff '24.

"All great men are dying;
I don't feel very well myself."

Since Revel has been at B. S. C. he has taken a large part in various activities, especially this year. He is an optimistic person. Worries seem to slide off his spirits like water off a duck's back. His cheerful smile and ready laugh will be missed when he leaves.

WILLIAM RICHARDSON, A.B.

GOODWATER, ALABAMA

Pi Kappa Alpha; Kappa Phi Kappa; Belles Lettres Literary Society; Student Senate, '23-'24; Football, '24-'25; Basketball, '24-'25; Captain Track, '23-'24; Field Day Champion, '22; "B" Club.

Can a fellow be in love and play football at the same time? Ask "Red." We do know that there isn't a member of our class whom the rest of the school hates to part with more than they do with "Red." He's a good sport, if there ever was one! He knows how to stand by a friend; and he knows how to stand by his College, on the gridiron and elsewhere. "Red," we hate to give you up.

ALLEN HERSCHEL SMITH, A.B.

FAYETTE, ALABAMA

Clariosophic Literary Society; Class Baseball, '23; La Revue Staff, '23-'24.

"Love me, Juliet, and the world is Romeo's."

Herschel is an excellent student, a gentleman, and a man who never says "no" to a friend's request. A man of justice and principle who always stands for the right. A man of sterling character and high ideals who puts loyalty and honesty above all else. He is one of the most consistent and earnest workers in college, though always optimistic and happy. The ladies say he's tall and handsome. Yet he vows he'll never marry, because he believes a man married is a man marred. Though single or twain, Herschel, we know success is yours.

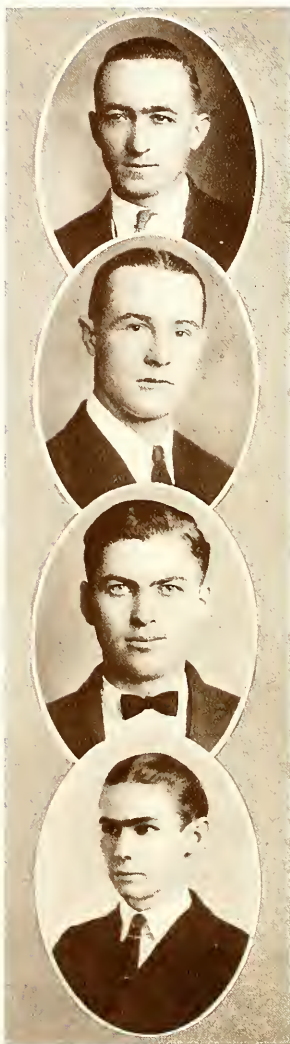

LOUIS WILLIAM SIMS, A.B.

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Belles Lettres Literary Society; Mathematics Medal, '20; Scholarship Medal, '20; President Sophomore Class, '20-'21; First Honor Roll, '20-'21; Secretary Student Senate, '22-'23; Ensley-Southern Club; Honor Book, '23.

"Not so tall and not so very fat—
Still he is a man for all that."

Louis is known and respected by all. He is quiet and unassuming of manner; yet he really does things. For four years, during his entire stay on Sunshine Slopes, Louis has striven on for the honor of his Alma Mater in the field of scholarship. It is with honest pride that we note that he is being graduated Summa Cum Laude.

SENIORS

ANDREW WALES SMITH, B.S. BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Belles Lettres Literary Society; Central-Southern Club; Manager Track, '23-'24; Assistant Manager Track, '21-'22; Class Football, '22-'24.

Let us introduce you to "Andy," our handy man, full of life and fun, who wisely invests his savings in "hair brushes." You may not think he looks like a Senior, but wait 'til you see him with his derby and cane. He can put it all over J. M. Clark when it comes to dignity! Rats had better "step around" when "Andy" comes across the campus with that derby and that cane. "Andy" has scores of friends who heartily wish him the best of luck.

GEORGE RUTLEDGE STUART, JR., A.B. BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Clarisophic Literary Society; Paints and Patches Club; "B" Club; Captain Freshman Basketball, '19; Gold and Black Staff, '19-'20; Revue Staff, '19-'20; Cheer Leader, '20; Scrub Football, '21; Band, '22; Class Football, '23; Glee Club, '21-'24; Scrap Iron Quartette, '21-'22; Varsity Baseball, '19-'22; Manager Baseball, '23; Advertising Manager Dramatic Club, '23; Pan-Hellenic Council, '23-'24; Winner Junior Oratorical Contest, '23; Manager Glee Club, '23-'24; Revue Elections, '21-'24.

"Personality" is a much-abused word; but "Jack" is the embodiment of personality. He is a leader who makes not the slightest effort to be one. His chief pastime is dispensing witticisms. As an orator, he holds his audience spellbound; as an all-round man, he is right there. There can never be but one "Jack" Stuart.

GEORGE P. THIGPEN, B.S. MOBILE, ALABAMA

Phi Alpha; Clarisophic Literary Society; Winner Ladies' Debate, '21; Gold and Black Staff, '21-'23; Assistant Tennis Manager, '22; Glee Club, '21-'24; Vice-President Dramatic Club, '21-'22.

"Shall I, wasting in despair, die because a woman's fair?"

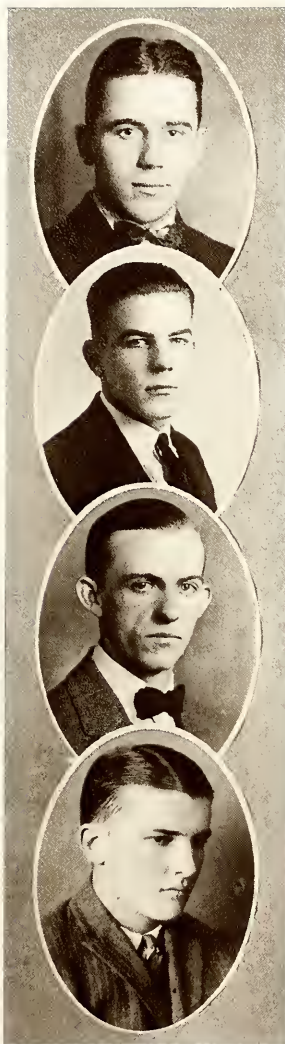

"Pig" has really done remarkably well in his school work, when you consider that he has had something so much more important to think about. He is graduating in three years, and has held the position of Chemistry Lab. Instructor during the past year. That in itself is evidence of his brains and ability.

JOHN ROGERS THOMPSON, A.B. TRINITY, ALABAMA

Kappa Alpha; Kappa Phi Kappa; Belles Lettres Literary Society; Pan-Hellenic Council, '22-'24; Track Squad, '23; Football, '23; Class Football, '22; Senior Class Prophet, '24; Revue Elections, '24; "B" Club.

Behold our Class Prophet! Do you note that prophetic gleam in his eyes? We're all anxious to know what fate he has marked out for us.

Who could help liking John Rogers? He's such a jolly good fellow, always ready for a sure 'nough good time.

SENIORS

RICHARD EDMONDSON TYLER, B.S. BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Phi Alpha; Belles Lettres Literary Society; Cercle Francals, '21-'22; Pre-Med Club, '21-'22; Dramatic Club, '22; Gold and Black Staff, '22-'23; Class Football, '22.

"R. E." came to Sunshine Slopes in the fall of '20. He spent three years with us, and then went to Emory to begin his medical course. He always stood high in the estimation of professors and students. Perhaps the inspiration was afforded by the "coming" of a stranger to the Hill in 1922. After all is said and done, "R. E." is a fine fellow.

HOWARD CHARLES WALTON, M.A. BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Bachelor of Arts, Bethel College; Bachelor of Divinity, Cumberland Presbyterian Theological Seminary.

"Coolness and absence of heat and haste indicate fine qualities."

Class '24 counts it an honor to have Mr. Walton receive his M.A. degree from our Alma Mater at the same time that we receive our degrees. Although he is personally known to only a few of us, we all join in wishing for him the greatest success possible.

ROSA MAE WARREN, A.B. BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Emory University; Alabama College; Peabody; Critic and Secretary Clarosophie Literary Society, '22-'24; Girls' Glee Club, '23-'24; Girl Scouts; Archery Club.

"Every smile, so merry, drives care away."

Although this is the only year Rosa Mae has been with us, she has fallen in line thoroughly with student life at Birmingham-Southern, having been especially interested in Girl Scouting. She brings with her a good record from other schools she has attended. A girl of her determination is sure to succeed.

MALCOLM MARION WATKINS, A.B. BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

President Belles Lettres Literary Society, '22-'23; Secretary, '21-'22; Assistant Editor Gold and Black, '21-'22; Glee Club, '21-'24; Paint and Patches, '21-'22; Assistant Business Manager La Revue, '23; Central-Southern Club; Assistant Track Manager, '23-'24; Team, '22; Class Football, '23-'24; "B" Club.

"Honor maintaining.
Meanness disdaining."

Malcolm is a hard worker, a good student, and a friend to everyone, having given his services freely wherever they were needed. He is a good example of a perfect gentleman—true, chivalrous, honorable, always glad to accommodate a friend. We know that he will put his best into whatever work he undertakes.

SENIORS

RUTH ANNETTE WILLIAMS, A.B. BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Zeta Tau Alpha; Honor Roll, '21-'23; Book of Honor, '23; Belles Lettres Literary Society; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '21-'23; Dramatic Club, '22-'23; Cercle Français, '21-'22; Junior Class Poet, '22-'23; Girls' Glee Club, '22-'24; Manager Girls' Glee Club, '23-'24; Girls' Pan-Hellenic Council, '22-'24; Secretary-Treasurer, '22-'23.

Ruth, with her delightful personality and womanly charm, has won scores of friends among faculty and students. She has a ready sympathy, and a big, warm heart that is responsible for no small amount of the "Sunshine" on these "Slopes." She is the possessor of a high scholastic record, and has entered whole-heartedly into various school activities. In a word, she is a girl whom "the world will bow before."

JOHN LEE WILLIAMSON, A.B. ASHLAND, ALABAMA

Belles Lettres Literary Society; Ministerial Association; Masonic Club.

"In every deed he has a heart to resolve,
A head to understand and a hand to execute."

Mr. Williamson has been with us for several years, and in that time he has always done his duty and fulfilled his obligations. Conscientious, painstaking, with the courage of his convictions, he will play well his part in the drama of Life.

BERTIE ALLEN, A.B. BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Graduate Alabama Technical Institute and College for Women; Summer Courses at University of Alabama, University of Tennessee, University of Chicago, Columbia University, Peabody College; Extension Work at University of Alabama and Birmingham-Southern College.

It is with pride that we name Miss Allen a member of the Class of '24. Although her work with us has been as an Extension student, still from the splendid reports that have come from her, we know she is well worthy to represent our Alma Mater.

QUENTIN R. HENRY, M.A. BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

A.B. Centenary College of Louisiana.

Mr. Henry is a graduate student and is this year taking his Masters Degree at Birmingham-Southern. He holds the position of teacher of English at Ensley High School. We are confident that anyone with the determination and ambition shown by his willingness to go to school and teach school at the same time is sure to succeed.

SENIORS

LUCILE JONES, A.B.

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Peabody College; University of Alabama.

The Class of '24 is proud of the prestige given them by claiming as one of their number a part-time student with such varied accomplishments as Miss Jones. She has done consistently good work, and we wish earnestly that success may continue to come her way.

HIRAM HARDEGREE KING, A.B.

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Graduate State Normal, Jacksonville; Peabody College; High School Principal, '12-'17; County Superintendent of Education Coosa County, '17-'21.

We are privileged in having as a member of our class one who has already stood the test of success, and has passed with flying colors. Mr. King is the principal of a school in Jefferson County. He owns a home in the neighborhood of the College, and is a worth-while citizen.

MRS. EOLINE WALLACE MOORE, A.B.

Peabody College; Howard College; Summer School, University of Florida; Kansas State Normal; Instructor Education at Birmingham-Southern Summer School, '23.

Mrs. Moore is another member of our class whom we are sorry not to have known intimately. But she brings with her an enviable record in the teaching profession.

ELIZABETH HUNT STEADHAM, A.B.

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Bachelor of Philosophy, Athens Woman's College; Summer Course, University of Chicago.

Miss Steadham is a recognized student of Spanish, and has done splendid work in that field as instructor. She has taught for several years in Havana, Cuba, and has taught Spanish in several Birmingham High Schools. Last summer she did similar work at Birmingham-Southern and filled the position of Dean of Women.

DRUSIE WHITSON, A.B.

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Graduate Tuscaloosa Female College.

We extend our admiration and respect to Miss Whitson for her purity and goodness. Embodied in her are all of woman's fine elements. "The purest treasure mortal times afford is a spotless reputation." A life with an earnest purpose and constant application always merits reward.

THOMAS CAMPBELL YOUNG, A.B.

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Tuiford College, '91-'94; Winchester Normal, '94-'96; University of Tennessee, '01-'02; Extension Work, Peabody College and University of Alabama; Instructor Birmingham-Southern College, Summer of '23.

Since 1916 Professor Young has been principal of the South Highlands School. Before that time he was principal of Birmingham Schools. In '21-'22 he was president of the Elementary Principals Association. It is a privilege to have an educator of such note receive his degree with the Class of '24.

Every Freshman

Believes in Birmingham-Southern.

Idolizes the faculty.

Resolves to pass all work.

Means well.

Is somebody's ideal.

Never forgets his place.

Gets what is coming to him.

Has some good qualities.

Always speaks well for the school.

Makes friends with everybody.

Studies occasionally.

Ought to wear his "golden" crown.

Upholds the Honor System.

Thinks first before speaking.

Has an equal chance to win.

Expects to be a success.

Reads the Gold and Black.

Naturally loves tradition.

Consumes a bit of learning.

Outgrows his freshness.

Leaves an impression.

Loves his Alma Mater.

Earnestly turns over a new leaf.

Greets others with a smile.

Eventually passes on.

Birmingham-Southern Summer School, 1923

The Summer Session is divided into two terms of six weeks each. Its plan is to give work that will meet primarily the needs of the following classes of students: (1) Teachers who desire a better training for their work in the class room, and who wish to secure, extend or renew certificates; or to prepare for state examinations. (2) Candidates for admission to college or those who desire to obtain advanced college credit; (3) and all persons qualified to pursue with profit any course offered, whether or not they are engaged in study or teaching.

The courses given by the heads of the various departments include the languages, the sciences, mathematics, history, psychology, sociology, and education.

The enrollment for the 1923 session was double that of the preceding year, and it is thought that an even larger number will be enrolled in the 1924 session.

O. Stanton Gandy, Captain

On the page opposite is pictured Captain "Big Hoss" Gandy, end de luxe and Panther star extraordinary, who led the 1923 campaign of the gridiron team. "Big Hoss" is the only man that ever played on a Gold and Black eleven and won recognition as All-Southern material. He received many mentions in 1922 as All-Southern end, and several last season. Injuries, however, handicapped him severely during the past season, and he was not able to do his best work in a large number of the games. "Hoss" was the outstanding defensive player in practically every game in which he participated during the past three years. Going down under punts, he was at his best and, backing up the line, he was invincible. He closed out his brilliant career on Sunshine Slopes in the great Howard-Birmingham-Southern battle November 23. His name will go down among the Panther immortals in athletics.

FOOT BALL

THE KING OF THE PANTHERS

1923 Letter Men

JULIAN T. ANDERSON, Quarterback

He is "June" to some and "Jelly" to others, but is a brainy little field general when he is in the game. "June" is a veteran on the Panther squad, and has done good work on the team. Despite his smallness in statue, he has won letters for two years in football. He still has one year in the fore in which to capture his third "B" on the gridiron.

CHARLES L. ASHWANDER, Guard

One of those fortunate individuals who performs on the gridiron for his Alma Mater and has not been dubbed with some ridiculous moniker. Ashwander got the opportunity to do his stuff in a large percentage of the games last season and played consistent football. He has the size, and should be one of the best linemen for the Gold and Black in 1924. He has one more season with the Panthers.

R. LORRAINE BLACK, Fullback

"Curly," the boy with the pretty hair, got his big chance late in the year. Playing but little in the earlier games, although he showed up well in all, he was reserved as the big gun for the Howard game—he produced. Smashing the line for good gains on every attempt, he was the outstanding line plunger of the day. "Curly" has two more years in which to make a great grid star for the Panthers.

GARLAND K. ETHERIDGE, Guard

A boy with a cognomen such as was swung onto "Big 'Un" some time after his advent into this now jazzy universe might be expected to be held down by such a handicap, but not so with "Big 'Un." He went out for the Hilltop eleven and made it. He is a husky little chap and presents a bulk that is hard to move aside. During the remaining two years of his college career he should make a linesman of first rank.

1923 Letter Men

DAVE EVANS, Guard

What does Dave care even if they did vote him the most handsome man? And, ladies, hear ye this: He is also a handsome football player. He has won the recognition of being one of the best guards that ever played at Birmingham-Southern. In the game, a glance down the line, when the opponent has the ball, invariably will find Dave behind the line of the opposition snagging the runner. Still two years more are left for his work to stand out on the football field.

OSBORNE ALLEN FARR, Fullback

Captain-Elect "Red," that's his title. Carrying some 185 or 190 pounds of brawn and muscle through the opponents' line was the small task assigned "Red" on the football field. Howard felt the smashing rush of those pounds again and again in that historic battle at Rickwood and helplessly fell aside. At the helm of the Panther grid machine next year "Red" should lead on to victory. It is his last year that he is serving in the capacity as captain of the team.

JOHN M. GANDY, End

The sporting world has known a number of famous turf performers, Zev and Sarazen, for instance, but Birmingham-Southern has a stable that is also renowned. "Big Hoss" and "Little Hoss"—they're the Panthers' bid for honors among famous horses. John is the "Little Hoss" and, like his brother, plays an end. He performed in stellar fashion on the flank of the Panther line last season. He has two years more with the Gold and Black.

ERNEST PRICE HOWELL, End

Another boy burdened with his name. Price was used in a good many games at flank in 1923. In the Howard game he was a big performer. Many who saw him play say that he will be in position next year to fill the shoes of "Big Hoss" at end without loss of strength to the team. He is an aggressive player and a fast man. He earned his first letter this year, and has two more years to play.

1923 Letter Men

WILBUR G. HOWELL, Tackle

"Dad" is what they call him and, although his hair is a little thin on top and his joints a bit stiff, he's a darn good man for the fix he's in. "Dad" has been one of the outstanding tackles on the squad since his coming to the Slopes two years ago. He broke his ankle during his first year, but went through the last season in good shape and played great ball. He also plays at end, as well as tackle. He has one more year with the team.

HOYT B. LEVIE, Center

He is the center on the football eleven and the center of attraction where the ladies congregate. "Sheik" is one of the fightin'est little centers that has performed on Panther teams since the first one, somewhere back in the '90's. In every game of the year, which he played, he was mentioned as a star, and despite the fact that he pulls the team at the comparatively low mark of 155, for a center, he has bucked the biggest opponents with success. His football career for his Alma Mater closed in a great game with Howard.

AUBREY A. MILLER, Quarterback

Some years ago, when Aubrey first made his appearance on Sunshine Slopes, somebody dubbed him "Frog." It is a bit of history that has almost been forgotten, but the ability that was so marked in his first game with the Panthers was just as outstanding in the last. In many of the games, Miller was half the Panther offensive, and his running and generalship on the field were the winning factors in many games during his career. The curtain dropped on his life, as a college football player, at the signal of the final whistle in the Howard game.

DOUGLAS C. PRITCHETT, Tackle

"Doug" broke into varsity football during the past season. His rugged playing was marked even during his year on the Freshman team, and he was promoted to a regular on his second annual attempt at the great college sport. Two more years are before the "Big Chief" to show that in him that fighting blood of America's first inhabitants, which in slight strains courses through his veins, is still a dominant factor. He is expected to be one of the Panthers' best before his career shall have terminated.

1923 Letter Men

JAPHETH E. RAWLS, Center

They say he slept the clock around, so they dubbed him "Rip." This trait, however, was not brought out in his football playing, for "Rip" is a wide-awake pivot man. He made the team on his first attempt and, with the loss of Levie, will be the Panthers' mainstay at center next year. He is an accurate snapper-back and an aggressive linesman. He has one more year with the Panthers.

WILLIAM RICHARDSON, Halfback

A veteran who played in practically all of the games, "Red" closed his career this season on the gridiron. He has seen a long term of service in athletics on Sunshine Slopes, and has taken an active part in three sports—football, basketball and track.

PIERCE TURNER SCOTT, Tackle

A smiling countenance is changed for a fighting mien and a sunny disposition is lost when "Pealus" takes the field. He is a rugged player and a fighter from the first to the last. He played great football on the Freshman squad and made the varsity from the first day out during the past season. With two more years in the offing, "Pealus" should make a great record for himself with the Gold and Black.

JOHN ROGERS THOMPSON, Fullback

When the name of John Rogers is brought up there is no student of Birmingham-Southern but will recall that eventful day, November 23, as the half neared its close and the Panthers trailed the Bulldogs by three points. A pause in the play; time out; a man is sent to the side lines, another takes his place. The stillness of death reigns. Signals, the ball snaps back, a diminutive player receives it on the 15-yard line, a kick—the field goal—the half ends. The play earned for John Rogers Thompson a glamour that will ever surround his name on Sunshine Slopes. That game closed his career.

1923 Letter Men

OSCAR T. WEEKS, Guard

"Ham," the love-sick, who, having won his letter both years of his career on the gridiron, sought new worlds to conquer—the heart of a fair damsel. His full name is "Big Ham," but a more suitable title, in the opinion of students following his years on the football team, might be "Big Bertha," for he is a large factor in the smashing of opponents' lines. He played a wonderful game against Howard and was the most outstanding lineman on the field that day. He has one more year on the team.

JOSEPH F. WHITESIDE, End

Joe got into many of the games during the year and acquitted himself well. He played stellar ball in several games at end. Joe has another year at Birmingham-Southern and, with the passing of Gandy, will give somebody a hard run for the berth at a flank.

THOMAS LOREN WILLIAMS, Halfback

"Bullo," "Iron-Head," and then voted the fashion plate of the college. He is a titled youngster for his age and, though he may be the fashion plate, there are many young football aspirants that would do well to copy his playing on the grid. As for "Iron-Head," he renounced his claim for that title in the Howard game when, called upon to direct the team upon short notice, he displayed remarkable generalship. He was the outstanding player in the annual Bulldog-Panther scrap, and though he is charged with reading his signals from his helmet, he led the Panthers to a tie score on that never-to-be-forgotten day. He has one more year of football. He was elected alternate captain for 1924.

LEWIS MILTON YIELDING, Halfback

The last alphabetically, but among the first in ranking on the gridiron, "Pig" completes the list of letter men. He played good football, in the games that he got in, and will be one of the outstanding players before his graduation, if predictions are worth anything. He has two more years with the Panther eleven.

Panther Baseball Squad, 1923

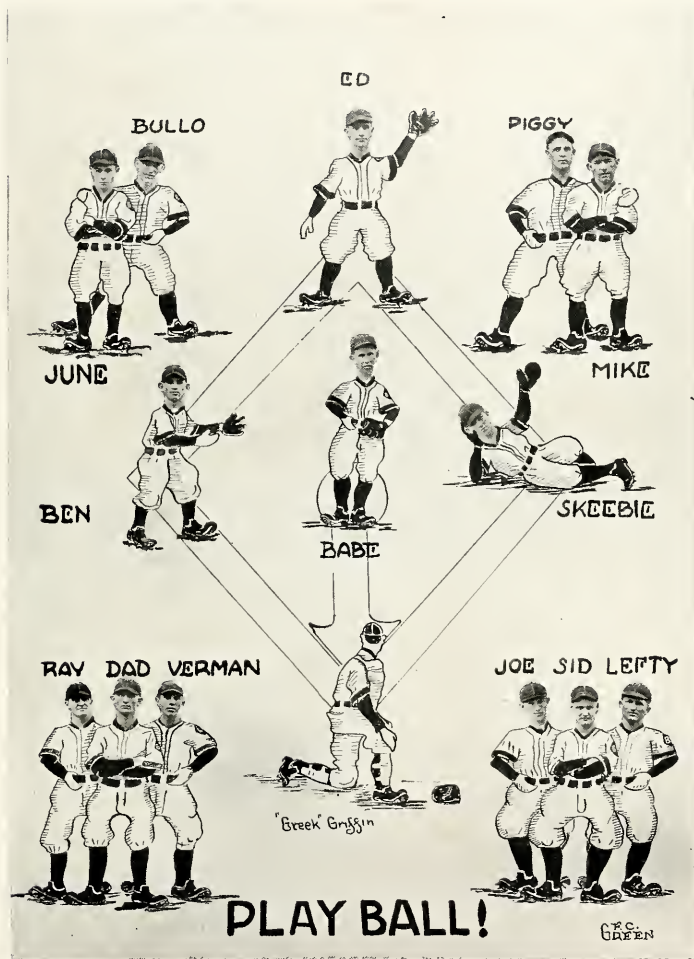

The Panthers put out a baseball team in 1923 that was, at times, a brilliant machine and, at others, one that failed to function smoothly. However, a good showing was made in the face of handicaps, and one game in particular is outstanding—the trouncing of the Bulldogs in a sensation of the baseball season. It was a 12-inning battle.

Fall Track Squad, 1923

Track athletics at Birmingham-Southern have advanced far since the advent of Coach Otis Kirby on Sunshine Slopes. Coming from the University of Alabama, where he was an outstanding track star, Coach Kirby took over the direction of track and field work on the Hill and has done good work. The cross-country team has run in several dual and inter-collegiate meets and has shown up well. The Cooper Road Race is an annual event that attracts much attention among the Panther distance runners. The inter-class meet is another event of much importance. A methodical system of awarding letters has been inaugurated and men who better previous track records in official timed events get their "B's". The following are record-holders for the respective events: Otis Kirby, 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, 440-yard dash; Earl McBee, half-mile run; Elgin Mellown, one-mile run, two-mile run, three-mile run; Virgil Hawkins, high jump; William Richardson, broad jump, javelin throw, shot put; Richmond Beatty, pole vault, 120 high hurdles, 220 low hurdles; Stanton Gandy, discus throw.

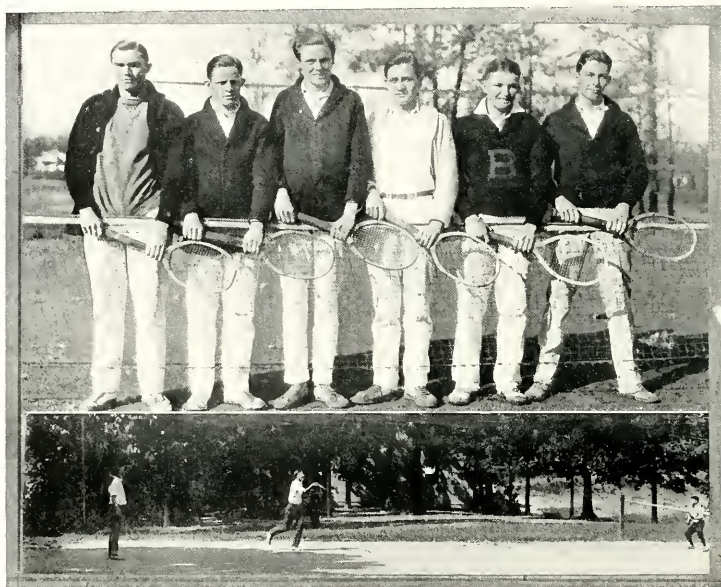

VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM

*Reading from left to right—Top row: Crain, Cousins, Coach Ben Englebert, Cannon, and Ford.

Co-Ed Basketball Squad

Under the tutelage of Coach Ben Englebert, the co-ed quintet of Birmingham-Southern has risen to near-major sport proportions on Sunshine Slopes. Starting with the basketball season of 1922-23, Coach Englebert put out a team that made a good showing as the first real representative five from the Panther lair in girls' cage circles. The team encountered a number of the strongest girls' teams in this section of the South and came out of the contest with flying colors. A number of scintillating stars have been developed on the Hill and have done good work for the team. The team that represented the college on the court during the past season was even stronger than the team of the season before and indications are that, with the present rate of advancement, Birmingham-Southern girls' team bids fair to become one of Dixie's leading aggregations within the next year or so. The co-eds are conscientious workers, and Coach Englebert is a relentless driver. This combination is bound to bring results.

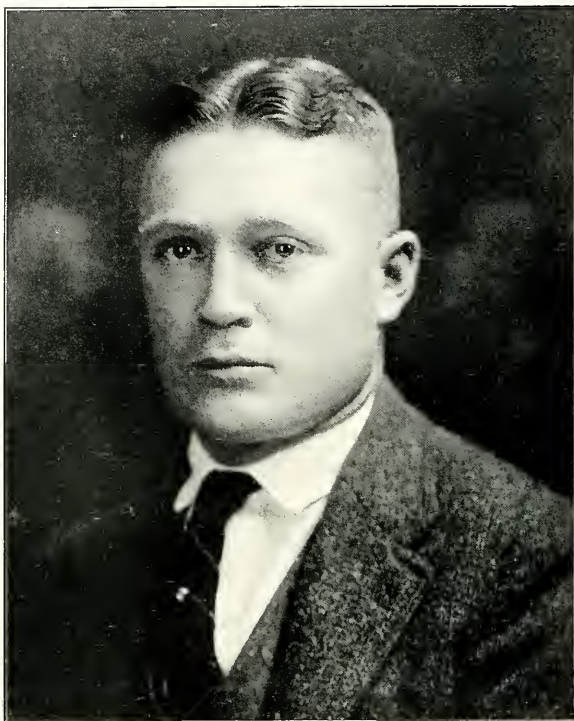

1923 Tennis

Although tennis has never taken on inter-collegiate proportions at Birmingham-Southern, it has been a popular form of athletics on the Hill, and inter-fraternity clashes and other intra-collegiate tournaments have made it one of much interest. The inter-fraternity tournament last year was an exceptionally hard-fought meet. A scene from the court is shown above and some of the leading adherents of the game on Sunshine Slopes. In the picture from left to right are Aubrey Miller, veteran tennis star; McCurdy, a faithful follower of the court; Lamar Branscombe, manager, and winner of the doubles, with Edwin Branscomb, in the inter-fraternity tournament; D. O. Wright, assistant manager; John Rogers Thompson, also a keen tennis player, and Bowling Barnes, another lover of the sport.

Harold D. Drew

NEW COACH AND DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Coach Harold D. Drew obtained his degree and his experience as an athlete at Bates College. Following his graduation, he attended the Springfield Training School for Coaches. In addition to his work there he has also had work under the famous Knute Rockne, mentor of the nationally-known Notre Dame football team. He went to Trinity College as football coach, and was later made director of athletics. He comes to the Panthers recommended highly by some of the most outstanding athletic figures in American collegiate circles. He resigned at Trinity in order to enter a broader field of work. Authorities of the college recommend him highly, and state that it was with regret that they accepted his resignation. He will have full charge of all athletics at Birmingham-Southern to succeed Coach Charlie Brown.

The College Sunday School Class

Birmingham-Southern College is the only college in the South which gives college credit for work done on Sunday. The realization of the fact that it is not enough to give the student information about the various phases of life, to make his mind more keen, is the cause of this progressive step in the establishment of a standard college Sunday School.

Five courses are offered in this branch of the Department of Religious Education. The courses, with the teachers, who are full-time professors, are as follows: "The Church and Modern Problems," taught by Dr. W. A. Whiting; "The Worker and His Bible," taught by Dr. H. A. Trexler; "Organization in Religious Education," taught by Professor Keith E. Powlison; "The Study of the Pupil," taught by Dr. Roy E. Hoke, and "The Life and Letters of Paul," taught by Dean Ludd M. Spivey.

WHO'S WHO LA REVUE ELECTIONS, 1924

Superlatively Speaking

MOST POPULAR STUDENT—A title anyone would covet. Porter Florence now claims this as his own. He has served well as cheer leader, his friendliness is unequalled, his energy is such that it cannot be easily used up, and his line is "unbreakable"—as is evidenced by the fact that he was also judged "man with the best line." Ben Englebert received the next number of votes for most popular student, and Jack Stuart has some "line" himself.

MOST POPULAR CO-ED—Helen Crain, blonde conqueror of hearts, swept all others aside in her quest for this honor. Individuals and groups fall alike. Next! Mildred Mims, with her winning smile, was second only to Helen's charms.

MOST POPULAR ATHLETE—O. Stanton Gandy. For several years "Big Hoss" has laid away honors, especially on the gridiron, which have brought fame to his Alma Mater. The best and most popular athlete of all. Aubrey Miller is the only rival worthy of his steel.

MOST INTELLECTUAL STUDENT—Mary Hamilton Horton will be conceded to fill this place most capably—even by the profs. From Latin translation to weather forecasting, Mary is given a wide margin. Upon Russell Johnson, upholding the honor of his sex, the votes piled thick and fast.

BEST ALL-ROUND AND MOST TALENTED STUDENT—Can mortal man ask for more? With so much to offer the world, where would the end of Verman Kimbrough's influence be? Englebert, one of our great, was the closest candidate for "best all-round."

BEST ALL-ROUND CO-ED—The dependable feminine! To Lois Caldwell comes the high honor of filling that niche; and, needless to say, she will do it. Anne Greene, with her ability and resourcefulness, was second.

HARDEST WORKER—The world will make a beaten path to the door of Ben Englebert, with this distinction now added to his others. A well-deserved merit! A Freshman, Cleo Rogers, also aspires to this distinction.

BEST MUSICIAN—Elton Morris, red hair, sunny smile, and super-producer of music. A wonderful combination!—and, by the way, the music is produced by anything which is capable of such. Howard Ellington, musical to the finger-tips, fully deserves to be his runner-up.

BEST WRITER—A sports editor and pilot of the "good ship, Gold and Black," the possessor of keen wit and nimble fingers, Jerry Bryan is given the writers' plume. C. R. Smith, capable in every way, was forced to take the second step on this "Ladder of Fame."

BEST SPEAKER—Russell Johnson, winner of many debates, a student of much ability, and a personage with the "much-quoted" eloquence, was easily the speaker of our fair slopes.

MOST MODEST STUDENT—John Hawkins, modest always, comes into his own in the eyes of his classmates when he is chosen to supercede even Anne Greene in this capacity.

MOST FRIENDLY STUDENT—"Tis a distinction that goes to Helen Hasty, and a trait that follows one through life after "campus days" are over. Kary Beavers leads the "eds."

BEST SPORT—Mike Norton. This year and last his fellows and (?) have picked him. To Mike, in his last year, goes the hope that he will always be the good fellow that he now is. Porter was close behind him in the race.

MOST DIGNIFIED STUDENT—We have always thought that the most dignified should be a ministerial student. Guy McGowan has caused our thoughts along that line to materialize. J. M. Clark, another follower of Wesley, nearly took this honor away from the winner.

MOST POPULAR PROFESSOR—This term and the Dean are synonymous. Dean Spivey has won a place in the heart of the student body which will last for aye.

MOST ATTRACTIVE CO-ED—"Bitsy" still reigns supreme! For this place we needed a small and winsome bit of femininity, and "Bitsy" certainly "fills the bill." Helen Crain was forced to make concessions to the brunette, here.

FASHION PLATE—When "Bullo" takes off his coat Spring comes, and when he dons it again, his fellow students begin to shiver. Yes! Loren Williams is our "style-setter," and Marianne Lyles is his assistant. Time is required, for he "loafs" as he fulfills the duties of a fashion plate.

NUNNALLIEST COWBOY ANSWERS FLAPPER'S DREAM—A Flapper dreamed. Do they?—and her Hero answered the plea. What would be more natural than for our "Fair'n Handsome" Johnnie to respond to the charms of the typical Miss Payne.

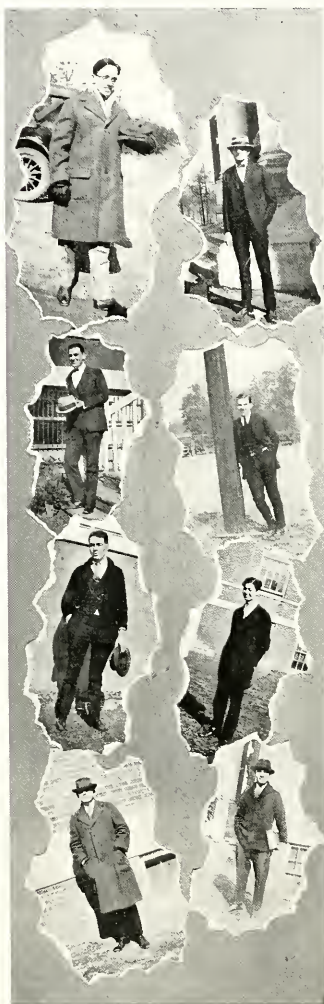

BIGGEST WOMAN HATER—John Rogers Thompson; but who would have imagined this? Surely this is some trick of fate. It is, however, recorded and so let it be known. All who have aspirations for a Leap Year trick—beware—and include Guy McGowan in the list of ineligible.

UGLIEST MAN—By a vote, he wins! And Ed Morris learns he is considered the ugliest man. Associated with him in the crime is Barnes Elliott. Remember—the fair sex says, "Looks don't count—much!"

BIGGEST BUM—Thomas Pettus is now a full-fledged member of the newly-organized "Give me! Let me have! Have you got! Club"—and rumor has it that he is the president. Incidentally, the same rumor states that "Piggy" Mitchell is the vice-president.

BIGGEST EATER—"The way to a man's heart is through his stomach." A trite saying, but O. B. Ellis, here, rises to state that it is most certainly true. As we go to print we have not been able to find out definitely which "cook" is trying to find "the way." Rat Jones is quite a Beau Brummel in this line himself.

FRESHEST RAT—Orion Dozier. Nervy! Funny! Fresh! It is even said that he sometimes draws humor, and the results of humor, from "pine boards." Surely, he is the freshest of the late victims of the proverbial "trap." Rat Mooty seems to think along the same lines.

LAZIEST MAN—The dictionary has been searched for the definition of this term, and the most correct one given is "Dad" Howell. (He thought only the "home folks" knew it). "Fatty" Cole was also judged suitable.

MOST HANDSOME MAN—(You're caught, girls! But don't blush. We knew you would be the ones to turn to this first). Dave Evans "would a'sheiking go, and leave the flappers' hearts in a broken row." This is he!—a Valentino-Nevarro model. Joe Whiteside was next, but we can't decide which one to call him.

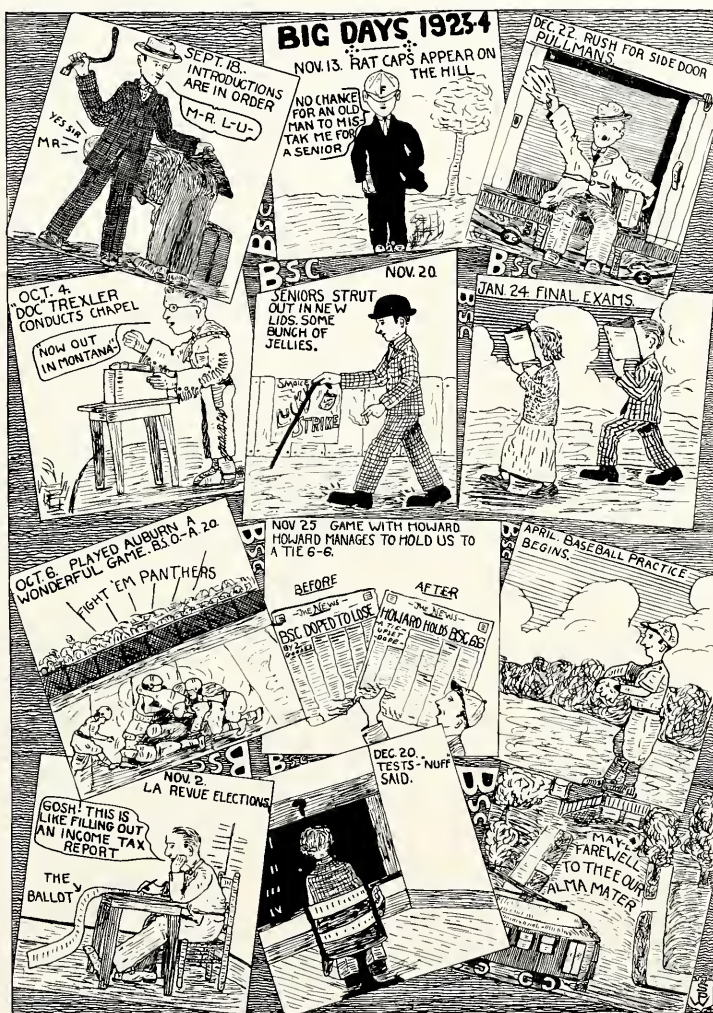

WITTIEST MAN—Wit and humor are so synonymous with "the spice of life," and Jack Stuart, the inimitable, so synonymous with them all that we do not wonder at the rich seasoning our college life has had. Porter helped spread the "said spice."

BIGGEST SPENDTHRIFT—"A Rat and his money are soon parted." That is a new axiom, and has grown out of the fact that "Hutchie" Hooten seems to gather and part with his "iron men" with equal celerity and cheerfulness. Thomas Pettus has also memorized this new axiom. "Souls, so few, and far between."

SLEEPIEST SLEEPER—They may call him "Sleepy"—but very few things escape him. "He works while he sleeps." Terry Teague, like Rip Van Winkle, sleeps with one eye open. Ed Howell, Jewell Hall and Sam Berry do quite a bit of dozing themselves.

MOST DESPERATELY IN LOVE—"Fatty" Cole is most desperately in love. No "young man's fancy in Spring" can account for it, for several seasons have "waxed and waned" since Cupid pierced Cole with the fatal arrow, and it seems this is the lone wound he will receive at the hands of the "little bow-bearer." His only rival, as a long-lived Romeo, is "Jeune."

MAN WITH BRIGHTEST FUTURE—Oscar Machado has accomplished a unique feat in making himself capable of bearing the weight which this title carries with it—and that, in his Sophomore year. Luck to you, Machado! Kary Beavers also sees a ray of light.

SOUTHERN SOON TO HAVE NEW
BRIDGE OVER SLEEPY HOLLOWHUGHES-HALOGEN ELOPEMENT
ENDS IN TERRIBLE TRAGEDYMagnificent Arch to Span Chasm Between Mt. Morphens and McSweeney Hall.Popular Co-Ed Meets Death in Attempted Runaway Marriage With Prominent Junior.

A great deal of excitement has been aroused by the recent announcement of plans for the construction of a mammoth bridge across Sleepy Hollow. Work is to begin immediately, according to information given out by Miss Eloise Cary, of the Dean's office. The contract has been let to Beards & Ashwander, constructing engineers, who secured the deal only after some very shady bargaining with the bursar, it is alleged. The cost of the project will be all out of reason, amounting to $100,000.00. This is because of the choice of contractors.

The bridge is a gift from Rat Karl Trombone Key, and will be known as the Key Memorial Bridge. Mr. Key inherited an immense fortune during the winter and his favor has since that time been assiduously courted by the college at large. In recognition of his munificence the donor is to be presented with a pass in Religious Education I and an allowance of five extra chapel cuts. It is rumored that he will be given a fellowship if he will establish an endowment sufficient to maintain it and employ someone to look after the duties.

The design of the structure is classic throughout, being of the Greek fruit-stand type of architecture, with just the faintest trace of iambic tetrameter intermingled to insure regularity of detail. It will be built of reinforced concrete, supported by sculptured columns, and braced on either side by flying buttresses which have been thoroughly domesticated to keep them from flying away. The supporting columns will be statuesque, each depicting a waiter with uplifted arm holding aloft a tray of hash. Models for these statues have been chosen from famous waiters of the past, among whom are "Big-Un" Hodges, "Ham" Weeks, Ben Englebert, Cleo Rogers, "Lightnin'" Hughes, and others. The figures will be dressed in regulation waiter garb, with spots of gray on their aprons to make them more realistic.

The walkway of the bridge will be wide enough to accommodate the person in ordinary rotundity, with bay-window benches to provide for passing and loafing. The floor will be of white tile, inlaid with pictorial representations of the person in ordinariness, such as bacon, patriarchal eggs, spaghetti, cornbread, cowpaws, zip and water. Over the entire span will be a glass roof with similar figures. Glass was chosen because its transparency will insure against summer school scandals. There will be a number of memorial windows which will be sold to seekers of immortality. At the latest report the only bidders were the Phi Delta Sigma fraternity and the Belles Lettres Literary Society.

BIBLE CLASS IS BADLY SHOCKEDProfessor Mackay Forced To Marry.

The class in Bible I received a very severe shock last Wednesday morning when, upon reporting for class, they found the room in a great confusion and Professor Mackay, very much agitated, in a heated discussion with Mr. Oscar Weeks—better known as Ham—and Miss Beatrice Overall.

It seems that Professor Mackay, who is pastor of the Owenton Methodist Church, was supposed to have been at his church some thirty minutes previous to perform the wedding ceremony of this popular couple and, having become thoroughly engrossed in his class work, had forgotten the appointment. The attendants, becoming impatient, had left the bride-and-groom-to-be to their own resources and had fled.

Mr. Weeks was very insistent that Professor Mackay make reparation to himself and his affianced; and the venerable minister and professor came to the decision that there was only one solution, which he began to act on as the ten-thirty class reported for the hour.

So the following is an account of how the Bible class was severely shocked, and Mr. Weeks' anger was appeased:

Mr. Verman Kimbrough sang "The Song of Love," and Mr. Thaddeus Ferrell (assent minded-ly) sang "At Dawning." Both

GADFLY PRODS
THE UNIVERSEPhantom Writer Wreaks Fury on
"Slopers."

Down with the pin-heads! Away with the flappers! Hang the jelly-beans! Let the thinking men rule!

The world is whirling, swirling, and twirling itself into a mad, jazz-besotted, supersaturated orgy out of which it must ere long awake with a dark brown taste and a dizzy headache. It has taken unto itself license for a protracted season of debauchery with no intention of quitting when the time expires. The world is in for a crash, a wreck, and an attack of sickened remorse when the worst is come to pass.

Women have gone wild and the gray matter of men has turned to stumpy-water. "No brains! No brains!" saith Eube Goldberg. "Vanity of vanities, all is vanity!" said the preacher. La Reuve has ceased to revue; the Golden-Black has ceased to gild and has gone a-blinking. The student senate has lost its pep and the literary societies have gone in for pink tea. The co-eds have learned to smoke and forgot how to sweep. The faculty has forsaken the classic illustrations of Rome and has taken to lecturing on safety matches. Mah Jongg is displacing poker and The Whiz-Bang has become the mentor of polite society. The rabble of the drawing room clamors loudly for Muscle Shoals, thinking it to be a new dance.

A wave of inexpressible sorrow swept over the campus yesterday as news of the tragic death of Miss Phoebe Halogen spread over the college community. The gay life of Sunshine Slopes was abruptly halted and the spirit of the student body was plunged in deepest gloom. A melancholy hangs over the quadrangle and an unnatural hush pervades the dormitories. Even the noisome houses on Fraternity Row maintain a somber silence in honor of the dead.

The tragedy occurred late Sunday night, when Hugh L. Hughes, of the Junior Class, allowed Miss Halogen to fall from the top of a sixty-foot ladder which was propped against a window of the chemistry laboratory of Science Hall. The body struck on the rocks below and was so horribly mutilated as to admit almost no recognition. Death ensued almost instantly, according to witnesses, the lady living only long enough to gasp out, "Oh, Hugh—!" Medical aid was summoned immediately, but arrived too late to be of service, except to Mr. Hughes, who was suffering severely from nervous prostration.

The couple were in the act of eloping, it is stated, having been secretly engaged for some time. This, however, was not learned until after the tragedy. It was generally believed that Mr. Hughes would marry Miss Gladys Lynch, to whom he has been known to be engaged for the past year. In fact, he had just returned from Miss Lynch's dormitory, having accompanied her to church that night. Miss Lynch refused to see a reporter this morning, but she is said to be in a state of hysteria and is being closely watched to prevent an attempt at suicide.

Mr. Wyatt Hale, who was an eye-witness of the tragedy, stated that Hughes aroused him from a nap in the president's office by throwing pebbles against the window. He went to the window to investigate the noise and saw Hughes on the ground looking up toward him. As he was about to speak, a window in the chemistry laboratory, which adjoins the office, raised suddenly and Miss Halogen leaped out and called softly, "in all set, Hugh." She then threw a suitcase, an umbrella, and a Mah Jongg set out of the window, all of which Hughes caught deftly. He then raised, with considerable difficulty, the sixty-foot ladder and leaned it against the window-sill, calling in a husky whisper for Miss Halogen to come down. She climbed out of the window and on to the ladder, but was afraid to continue the descent when it swayed and quivered from her weight. Hughes came nervously up the ladder to assist her. She gave herself into his arms, but he did not hold to

It is with unalloyed pleasure that the staff presents to mmaxvez its readers this Rejuvenation of the ggggggg Golden-Black. We commend it to your careful perusal, komsuh that it is full of bulzicqzetya—literary and other boshnmzchdkt. We have spared no pames smutking in our efforts to make it the best blubblututst edishun of the year.

Although our intensions from the jskrbjvufvtskfhx beginning have been the best blunknub we have had the slightest cooperation from the darnedshkhtybrmckfu regular staff of the paper, they have only beenediffedities in our bemidjyrbthofte dico pathway.

It was even necessary for us to execute a cleverfajdovegnc "coupe-detat" bujfrjydkfovtfdik to get this issue out. We were determined however that no bulmorethanabeficshdhd bar us from our naturalmkdkbtebnky rights so we put our dumbnecdgtegr heads together and are bringing out this oskshcnegdr edishun in spite of them. SOME EARNEST THOUGHTS

The power of a handsome young man, like that of the author of these lines, for good or evil, is untold. I sometimes wish that I had not been constructed with so much dazzling beauty to the square inch. When I think of the personal appearance of such men as Ham Weeks, Blalock, and Benson, I am tempted to go and disfigure myself some way.

Every day the "senatus" which comes to those who have more wealth than they know what to do with settles down upon me and I desire to give advice to some of the young men of our country, who do not know the difference between a "quo warranto" and the crysipelas.

As I think of my own past there comes to me a coy and timid, distrustful, though evanescent intangibility, which softly lingers in the untroubled air like the subdued murmur of a hoarse donkey about nine miles up the gulch.

In my boyhood days, aside from the gentle pates of the maternal slipper upon my overalls, everything moved along with me to the silent, oleaginous flow of the ordinary goose grease. My future at that time was a little doubtful, as yours is today, and it was hard to prognosticate whether I would fracture limestone for the streets of a great city or become President.

Young man, why do you fritter away the heyday of your existence, when you might skirmish around and win some laurels? Daniel Webster, President Garfield, Dr. Tanner, George Eliot, Benjamin Disukes, John Marshall Hardin, and Jack Stuart, were all, at one time, poor fellows. They had to start at the foot of the ladder and climb upward, but they have rustled. They have peddled their coats and made Rome howl.

While the great world throbs on, you sigh and refuse to throb. While other young men put on their seals brown up overalls, and wrench the laurel wreath and other vegetables from cruel fate, you are idle and hang, like a great wart upon the face of nature.

You can do the same. You can win some laurels, too, if you will brace up and secure them while they are ripe.

Will you bristle up and win a deathless name and owe almost everybody, and give your parents a large wad of glad surprise, or will you cause a prolonged wail of anguish to your broken hearts, while a sombre pal hangs in the gladsome sky like a pair of pants with only one suspender?

Some of you know only to repel rudeness with rudeness, and cold, preserved gall with a large armful of acrid sarcasm. You have the remorseless ignorance of a stump-tall cow in a dahlia bed. When you pick out a young lady companion, choose one whose general appearance will not kill the vegetation, one with hair like the soft stresses of a bald-headed shrub, a voluble, kind, and refrain of a plaining mill, a sweet young creature with dewy eyes, and breath like timothy hay, one whose merry laugh echoes out on the summer air like the joyful music of a bald-headed bobolink, one whose wild and peculiar beauty would stop a clock.

Are you going to be in ignorance of the world of science, or will you be a great chemist like Test Tube Cameron, and know what substances to bring together to cause a mixture of ————, peroxide of nitrogen, rhomboidal glucose indications of valeodicty and free-milling oxide of anti-fat?

Are you going to shut out the beauty of the landscape by uttering a large two-dollar gloom over the glad green earth, or will you be another sad-eyed genius like myself, whose pants are too short, and who manifests other signs of greatness, if you will only follow in my footsteps you will be filled with sacred pleasure and lavender colored tranquility.

Will you be a hero, or are you going to continue to fritter away your existence in chasing the follies of this day and generation, and have naught to look back upon, but a choice assortment of robust regrets?

Kary Beavers (after hearing Bryan's lecture on evolution): "Ed, I know that you're great - great - great - grandfather threw a cocoanut at my great-great-grandfather?"

Ed Rush: "No, but what a pity he didn't hit him!"

.....
To our fat friends: May their shadows never grow less.

.....
A very large lady entered a street car and gallant Rat Slaton arose and said: "Lady, may I be one of the three to give you a seat?"

BULL CONNOR SEZ

The desire of the hilltopper is to do less, learn a little, and receive more than the next fellow. About the only way to achieve it is to stay home, do lots, and receive none.

To have fun, and be sufficient unto himself, is not synonymous in the college man's career.

The co-ed has an idea often, but to gain favor with her fellows, she keeps it to herself, oftener.

There are no fences in life, but freshmen find there are many in the suburbs.

Walking is good outdoor exercise, but when he came to Sunshine Slopes, he had no idea that a puddle-jumper would be such an aid in gaining this extra-curricula hour.

Some interesting captures may be predicted when everyone is isolated with the spring fever germ. Its only vaccine is common sense. An epidemic is feared.

Seen in an alcove: A tall blonde, holding forth with a small, cowed brow in the art of argumentation. Wonder what the dust in Cupid's eyes can be?

Popularity is the art of saying the same thing in a different way to every different fellow you meet. Playing his role, as it were.

If anybody wears a new tie, the co-eds race forth, but let a girl wear a new frat pin, and the silence says louder than mere words, "How did she do it?"

I'd be more than satisfied if I could while away while talking with a co-ed." Cars parked to look at, a la campus, n'est-ce-pas?

When you hear, issuing from the bookstore, a voice proclaiming, "I, sir, am an artist in my line," it is—yes, you guessed it—Benson, Porter, Stewart, Andy, and so on, ad infinitum.

To forecast who will fall for whom is so dangerous that no one does it except in private among the co-eds.

The triangle is an old phenomenon in geometry, but a new formation on the hill.

To linger in one place is not difficult unless someone else decides to linger, too, and then you desire some other corner of the library is far more enchanting.

Ruth: "When we are married I'll share all your troubles and sorrows."
June: "I have none."
Ruth: "I said when we are married."

Turner Scott (in restaurant): "I want to try the new dish you have advertised so highly in the papers."

Waiter: "What's that, sir?"
Turner S.: "Bring me a double portion of Mah Jongg."

HUMORISQUE

SANTA CLAUS

A demon, a demon, a demon, say I.
This horrid old man is both crafty and sly.

He gives us lumbago from carolling at the top of his lungs.
He makes us go shopping in perilous throngs,
The gifts that he brings us are puts in our socks
Are enough to make people go crazy in flocks:
Collapsible derbies, corn plasters, trained fleas,
Red ties, fur ear-muffs, and limburger cheese.

SOUTHERN SOON TO HAVE
NEW BRIDGE OVER
SLEEPY HOLLOW

Prof. George Curry is the proud designer of this classic arch, which is peculiar and unique in collegiate architecture, according to the unanimous verdict of authorities on this subject.

The completion of this masterpiece of engineering and artistic endeavor will go down as a momentous event in the history of Birmingham-Southern. A mass dedication will be held immediately after the opening of the fall term. Special trains from all points of the United States and some parts of East Lake will bring prominent and other specimens of alumni to the scene. The following program has been arranged:

Invocation—Rev. Earl Babe Solo, "The Bridge"—Miss Gladys Lynch, Speech—E. J. Harris, Ph.D., Professor of Landscape Gardening and Boiler Repairing.

Another Speech—Rat Leonard Shivers (assisted by Alonzo C. Clark).

Speech of Acceptance (for College)—Hazel Wooley.

Parade of Waiters, clad in kimonos and bedroom slippers.
Song, "Alma, Mat Her"—Glee Club.

Collection—Dean Spivy.
Dismissal—Herschel Smith, Chaplain.

Jack Stuart: "Say, Porter, I've got a new girl."

Porter Florence (much interested): "What's her name?"

Jack (wisely): "I call her postscript."

Porter F.: "Er—er—why?"

Jack: "Her name is Adaline Moore."

Jerry B.: "My roommate kissed a girl last Christmas and it made him sick."

Mildred M.: "How come?"

Jerry B.: "Mistletoe poisoning, I suppose."

RAT SHIVERS GETS PORTER LOVING CUP

The Committee on Awards for the Porter Loving Cup made their report yesterday to the athletic editor of the Golden-Black. This report stated that the 1924 Loving Cup should go to Rat Shivers, Class of '27.

Mr. Shivers has made for himself a very enviable record since his arrival on the hill. He distinguished himself first by his remarkable agility on the parallel bars some few weeks ago at the Y. M. C. A. Stunt Night. His shortly afterwards by the offer sent him by Ted Shawn to join his company of antiseptic dancers. This really shows off Mr. Shivers' physique to the advantage it deserves. Perhaps Pavlova will want him—who knows?

RAT HARRIS

Finds Fame in Remarkable
Sermon.

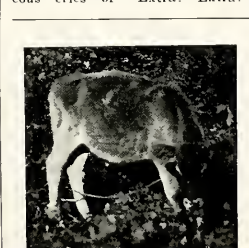

(By Hoffman Steam Press)

Jacksonville, Ala., Feb. 31, 1924. The heart of Jacksonville beat proud and tumultuous today as her favorite son, the Rev. Rat Harris of Birmingham-Southern College, bestrode a mighty sermon and galloped gloriously into national fame. The occasion was that of the baccalaureate sermon for the graduation class of the state school for the sub-normal, which is located at Jacksonville. The noted divine had for his subject, "The Amelioration of Amelia," and chose for his text that inspiring passage, "All men are liars." At intervals during the delivery, his voice rose to magnificent heights and broke the Sabbath quiet of the village with thundering echoes.

"The thing we must determine," said the speaker, passionately, "is the whiteness of what. We must bring the abstract into the sphere of relativity and resolve the metaphysical into the concrete, regardless of sinister threats from the cement trust."

Here the remarks of Rev. Harris grew so pointed that the president of the local hod-carriers' union walked out in high indignation. He was followed shortly by the colored janitor but it was afterwards learned that he was merely going to fire the furnace.

The Associated Press had their noted correspondent, O. R. Grimes, on the scene to relay the sermon to them hot from the pulpit. A few hours after its delivery it was streaked in flashing headlines across the front page of the Birmingham Reporter, which was vended by newshykes on the streets of Birmingham with raucous cries of "Extra! Extra!"

Winner in Rural Beauty Contest.

In football, basketball, and baseball this unique hero shines with equal brilliancy. He is a streak on the basketball floor and a mere flash on the baseball diamond. In addition to this, Mr. Shivers' crowning achievement has been his selection by Babe Goldberg on the composite All-Hysterical eleven.

Such a man could not be overlooked by the committee, even with such athletes as "Hoss" Gandy, Andy Smith, Aubrey Miller, Frank Echols, Hoyt Levie, and Peter Preer in the race.

It is reported, as we go to press, that these men are unearthing a revolution to tar and feather the committee which made the award.

The news spread quickly and angry mobs gathered, seemingly from nowhere, to discuss the issue pro and con on the downtown corners. Wild rumors are afloat to the effect that the Ku Klux Klan may take a hand in the affair, and reports from a reliable source have reached this office that Portland Cement and other corporations will bring suit.

BADLY SHOCKED

were accompanied by Miss Marianne Lyles.

To the impressive strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March the lovely bridesmaids and grooms-men entered.

Mrs. John Robert Cole was becomingly gowned in light georgic crepe which contrasted gracefully with her pink chrysanthemums. (Mrs. Cole was closely followed by the jealous glances of the pompous Mr. Cole.)

Mrs. Albert Blaylock was lovely in a dress of orchid chiffon. Her flowers were lavender chrysanthemums.

Mrs. William Richardson was prettily clad in a hand-embroidered middie suit. She carried pink chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Milton Yelding was very attractive in cream colored taffeta. Her flowers were orchid chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Julian Anderson, as matron of honor, entered handsomely gowned in crepe trimmed with beechwood. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds, to which was attached, with flowing ribbon, the struggling Mr. Anderson.

The groomsmen were Mr. E. J. Harris, Mr. Andrew Smith, Mr. Oscar Machado, and Mr. I. W. May.

The attractive little twins, Inez and Catherine Cross, were the flower girls. They scattered fig leaves from their tiny baskets.

Preceding the bride came the adorable little ring-bearer, Master Peter Preer. He wore a suit of white satin and carried the ring ingeniously concealed "in the heart of a rose."

The bride was certainly never more beautiful than when she entered on the coat sleeve of her father, Mr. N. T. Overall. Her wedding dress consisted of white duchesse satin trimmed in genuine lace. Her beautiful veil was caught daintily in her hair by a wreath of Italian Brier. Her flowers were white rosebuds and Jones valley lilies.

She was met at the altar by the her tight enough and she fell from his embrace. He let out a piercing scream, according to Mr. Hale, and descended to the ground, half sliding and half climbing. Taking up the mangled uniform in his arms, he moaned pitifully, "Oh, Florine, Florine, my own Florine!" At this juncture Miss Halogen's twin sister, Mrs. Christine Hansen, stuck her head out of the window and began to scream hysterically, weeping torrents on Hughes below. Hughes moved over about a yard and continued his moaning. The scene was soon packed with students, who were aroused by the cries of the sister. By this time the other sisters, Bromine and Iodine, were also fully dressed. They descended by the ladder to the group below. Bromine, the elder sister, appeared considerably angry and said roughly to Hughes, "Why didn't you hold on, you careless boob?" Hughes, ever to the suitcase, she opened it and examined the contents. "I thought so," she snapped, "the black cats!" She then gave directions for the undertaker, gathered up the suitcase, and other articles and climbed back up the ladder, followed by her two sisters.

Elaborate plans are being made for the funeral, but have not yet been announced in detail. The four sisters are members of the distinguished Halogen family, a name of great renown in the chemical world. The deceased and her twin sister, Chlorine, were charter members of the Alpha Beta Quatta sorority. The other sisters belong to the Tau Deltas. All were the very last word in social circles. The family crest bears the image of a wash-bottle with the motto, "Acids, Bases, and Salts" etched on it. The four were temporarily doing light housekeeping in the chemistry laboratory because of crowded conditions in the co-ed dormitories.

The pall-bearers will be Professor Alden Kalthum, Doctor George Petruvia Thigpen, and Skinny Gilbert Cameroun. Wreaths of sulphur flowers and sprays of cyanide have been donated by friends from the chemistry classes. The college will celebrate the occasion of the funeral with a holiday.

broom and the best man, Mr. Benjamin Dismukes.

Mr. and Mrs. Weeks were entertained at an elaborate reception following the wedding at Pritchett's Place. Immediately after the reception, the happy couple left for an extended honeymoon. Wall points in the Birmingham district.

They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Blaylock, Mr. and Mrs. William Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Yelding, and Mr. and Mrs. Julian Anderson. It was only then that it was discovered that these couples had, just the evening previous, received their divorce and M.R.S. degrees, respectively.

So it was thus that the Bible I class received such a very severe shock on last Wednesday morning, when, upon reporting for class, they found the room in great confusion and Professor Mackay, very much agitated, in a heated discussion with Mr. Oscar Weeks—better known as Ham—and Miss Beatrice Overall.

FRIENDS? YES.

Ruth had a little friend,
She thought he was the stuff,
And everywhere that Ruth went
He was with her sure enough.

He went with her to Math, one day—
She knew her lesson fine,
But June looked at six times six
And called it twenty-nine.

Alas, the teacher turned him out,
But still he lingered near,
And waited nervously about,
Until Ruth did appear.

Dumbest: "Did you see Gandy

History Prof. (coldly): "Well,
I've been glancing over your last

THE OBITUARY OF FRATERNITIES

Alpha Tau Omega—Become an A. T. O. and meet the debutantes. Members never bored by having to enter student activities. Special grudge against musicians. Pledge pins are annually becoming on blue clothes.

Kappa Alpha—Lost! Conspicuous position on campus. Liberal reward for its return. Present members warranted harmless. We have some all-around fellows and one or two with remarkable ability.

Phi Alpha—Capacious home, convenient to Simpson and carline, affording quicker access to Freshmen. Will guarantee a substantial standing with the profs. (and a national standing in the near(?) future).

Pi Kappa Alpha—Join the oldest fraternity on the campus—so old that everybody has forgotten of its existence. If you played on any high school baseball, basketball, or football team, write us before registering and we will remit pin by return mail.

Phi Delta Sigma—Upperclassmen who have accomplished anything cheerfully taken in upon request. Tennis players or aspirants to positions on the Gold and Black staff are assured success with our organization.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon—Big drive now on! Slogan, "One thousand men for our chapter by October 1st." No objections to outcasts from other colleges. We pledge both night and day, although we have only a few chapters.

Zeta Tau Alpha—We are the ones! Our rushing has been unruffled for numerous seasons. Join us and become a literary light as well as an Honor-Roll student. References: Tau Delta Sorority.

Tau Delta—We teach a special course in Jazzmania. Members must smoke, dance, "pet," and drink. All our other rules may be broken, but these are our prime requisites. Those disagreeing needn't apply.

Alpha Alpha Alpha—We were founded before all others were put on paper. Our former prestige, which, we admit, is a thing of the past, should give us the preference. Call at our room. We have two chairs and a telephone.

Kappa Lambda—Headquarters for all elections. Our leaders sponsor all candidates. The Y. W. C. A. and Literary Societies are ours, by choice. Freshmen must learn Mah Jongg by mid-term; taught daily in our glossy suite in the Science Apartments.

GADFLY PRODS THE UNIVERSE

Students glibly quote pungent phrases from fanatics and call themselves thinkers, but scramble wildly for cover when asked a pointed question. Sideline athletes talk knowingly of punts and letter formations, but cannot hear when asked what "down" it is. Hulking giants flunk-arm brigades of thugs, but stink a course because of a headache.

Bunkum! Bluff! Bull! Beefeers! Bounders! Babies! But let us be of good cheer, "If winter comes, then spring is not far behind." The quickest way to recovery is to carry gaily on until we reach an equal and contrary reaction. After all, life is a series of ups and downs—feastings and fastings, as it wuz. "Man wants but little here below, Nor wants that little long—"

The trouble is he wants it all at once.

June (during a quarrel): "You talk like an idiot!"
Ruth: "I've got to talk so you can understand me!"

Howard Ellington (to his fond parent): "Father, I think it's only fair to tell you I need fifty dollars. I'd rather owe it to you than some rank outsider."

Dialogue between Ray Hurlbert and M. DeLuxe:

"I don't like ray proofs," announced Ray, taking out several glossy plates.

"Why not?" asked the photog. "Well, look there at my nose, for instance. It's cracked."

"So it is, so it is," (comparing it with original).

"But, of course," he added quickly, "if you don't like it—'one new nose', he murmured, writing it down on a pad.

Ray took out another proof. "There!" he cried, indignantly, "Look at that profile! Did you ever see anything like it?"

"Never!" (emphatically).

"Look at the chin," continued Ray, disregarding him. "I know mine doesn't recede like that."

"No," agreed Monsieur DeLuxe, "it recedes more."

"But, of course, if you don't like it—'add fifty per cent to chin', he scribbled on his pad.

"Look here!" shouted the business manager, fiercely. "I'll be darned if I'm going to stand for another sitting again. When that final picture is ready I want it to look like something."

"It will," said the bulb-squeezer, amiably.

"You can bet on that. You won't recognize yourself."

Year after year graduates are turning to this store to care for their apparel needs through life, recognizing that dress has a great deal to do with attainment.

Dress may not make the man or the woman, but the man or woman who is not properly dressed is working under an unnecessary handicap and certainly has not learned that it costs no more to be well and attractively attired than otherwise if the clothing comes from

LEST YOU FORGET! LEST YOU FORGET!

Be reminded that you are now in one of Life's great literary filling stations—

Here, knowledge, the greatest known Motive, is stored in quantities, and Variety Awaits your taking.

Soon Officer Time will hustle you along your way. Therefore, NOW, with this fuel, fill to the full your reservoir, lest you "GO DEAD" and be tossed and forgotten upon the great highway of life, where the world and your loved ones confidently expect you to show speed and power.

Acknowledgments

Our task is done, and we pause to express our humble gratitude to those who have so kindly assisted us in the compilation of this volume of LA REVUE.

Especially do we want to thank Mr. Ganster, of the Alabama Engraving Company, for his invaluable aid in helping us to secure photographs, and for his many courtesies and considerations in every department of the work.

To Benson Printing Company we are very grateful for the excellent service they have rendered and the thoughtful attentions they have given.

We owe much to Deluxe Studio and to Turner Studio for their efficient efforts and unfaltering patience.

To Mr. Paul Pim we offer thanks for aid he so freely gave in our art department.

We extend our regards to Dr. Snively and Professor Powlison for the very fine co-operation and personal interest they have shown to all of our solicitations.

We want to express our sincere appreciation to every one who has in any way contributed to make this publication possible. To lenient professors and to all who have loaned their efforts in making our work lighter, we are indebted.
